

THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

156 FIFTH AVENUE
NEW YORK 10, N. Y.

Mrs. William L. Swallen
Memorial Minute

Adopted by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions
January 21, 1946

In Florida, where Mrs. William L. Swallen received her Home Call on December 31, 1945, there is a tree so lavish with its flaming glory that the branches of neighboring trees are beautified with the flowers of the "Royal Poinciana." So close to her Lord did Mrs. Swallen live that throughout her long years she shed His beauty on friends and co-workers.

Mrs. Swallen was born Sallie Willison on a farm near Johnstown, Ohio, August 16, 1863, and during student days at Ada Normal School and Ohio Wesleyan University, she early manifested the radiant Christian zeal which was to be so characteristic of all her years of fruitful service, forty-eight of which were spent in Korea, whither she went shortly after her marriage to the Rev. William L. Swallen in 1892.

During the early years of their ministry in Korea God blessed the home of Dr. and Mrs. Swallen with five children; but even while the children were young Mrs. Swallen managed to give a considerable portion of her time to Bible teaching. To this work she brought dedicated talents, combining a rare love of the Word with innate skill as a teacher. It was in her Bible classes for women that the course of study was inaugurated which later Dr. Swallen elaborated into the "Correspondence Course of Bible Study" so used of God throughout the whole country.

In the report of her work made in August 1900 at the close of their first term of service, having told of her Sunday School class of thirty-six young mothers, the teachers' training class she led in her home, the Wednesday afternoon Bible study group of forty women, the April class of intensive study for a full week for women from the country districts, Mrs. Swallen wrote, "I feel I have learned only my first lesson in this language and in the work.....and trust we may be permitted to do more for our Master in the future." How fully that faith^{was} justified is succinctly told by a loved co-worker, Dr. Samuel A. Moffett, in an article commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Swallen's service in the Korea Mission: "Dr. and Mrs. Swallen have done a monumental work in the faithful, persistent cultivation of a field which (in 1918) comprises nearly one-third of the Christian constituency of Pyengyang station, reporting over 60 churches with more than 6000 members.....Mrs. Swallen has had special oversight of the Bible classes, there having been held 148 of these for men and women this last year with an attendance totalling over 9000. Many of these classes she has conducted personally, having proved herself almost as good an itinerator as her husband since the children have grown up."

Another outstanding type of missionary service rendered by Mrs. Swallen was the securing of pledges for "volunteer preaching." This custom in the field of evangelism was the precursor of Dr. Frank Laubach's "Everyone teach one" in the field of literacy. In 1914, the year in which so many lights were "going out all over Europe," Mrs. Swallen's annual report, having made note that a Bible class for women had been held "in every church, no matter how weak or how small," continues, "Pledges for volunteer preaching by the women were taken up at each of these local classes. Six hundred six women pledged three thousand sixty-seven days, an amount equal to eight years, six months, and one week of time by one person." If, as has been said, "The work of an institution is but the lengthened shadow of the founder," then these faithful Korean bearers of the Good News of Salvation may be likened to an ever swelling chorus of those who proclaim the gospel message.

In November of 1940, after forty-eight years in Korea, Dr. and Mrs. Swallen returned to the United States and made their home in St. Petersburg, Florida. Here, as in the home in Korea, a beautiful hospitality was extended to a host of friends and neighbors, even after waning strength kept Mrs. Swallen from service outside the home. On New Year's Day of 1943 a fall had resulted in a fractured hip but she made a most remarkable recovery, and with the assistance of her devoted husband and daughters was about the home almost to the last.

Mrs. Swallen's letters, lips and life were always so full of praise to the one she so deeply loved and served with such devotion that it is natural to end this memorial minute on such a note of triumph. The "treading of God's voice" to her always seemed to end in the glad response of praise: "This year we have reached 'grace upon grace' and we praise Him for His goodness." At the funeral service a friend sang one of Mrs. Swallen's favorite hymns, "Face to Face"; and the Friend's promise of the prepared place for His own was read. Mrs. Swallen, after one day in quiet sleep, had peacefully gone to her welcome in the Father's house of many mansions.

The members of the Board of Foreign Missions record their thanks to God for this life signally used to the glory of God in the extension of His Church in Korea; and likewise extend their sympathy to Dr. Swallen and all the members of the family, and to the many friends who will cherish the memory of Sallie Willison Swallen.

Commit thy way unto Jehovah - I've done it

Trust also in Him -
I'm doing it

And He shall bring it to pass - I expect it.

Oh think, to step on a shore and that shore Heaven!

To take hold of a Hand and that Hand God's Hand!

To breathe a new air and know it celestial air!

To pass forever from the storm and tempest of life
To one unbroken Smile,-

To wake up - and find it Glory!

Hymn by Fanny Crosby inspired by a vision.
Back in Bridgeport, Conn. Miss Fanny Crosby, the noted blind hymn-writer, who was 94 years old last March, is just recovering from a long illness. While it was feared for a while that the aged woman could not recover, Miss Crosby herself declares that it was one of the comfortable attacks of illness that she ever had, for a wonderful vision came to her to alleviate her suffering.

In her vision Miss Crosby says, the prophet Matthew came to her and told her to put her house in order. This did not mean, however, that she was going to die. Then a dear "old saint" came; she said to him, "Have you come to conduct me to the Celestial City?" "No," he replied, "I have come to give you these cheering words; Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give you a crown of life. Be calm and get your strength back as soon as you can, and then go to work for the Master." "

When she recovered Miss Crosby wrote the following verses, which were inspired by this vision:

Almost in sight of the harbor,
Oh what a beautiful throng Over me lovingly bending, Singing a lullaby song.

Almost in sight of the harbor,
Almost at home on the shore,
Only the signal to enter,
Only the stroke of the oar.

Almost in sight of the harbor,
Calm and serene was my rest, Trusting my Christ and Redeemer, Leaning by faith on His breast.

Almost in sight of the harbor,
Surely my spirit has been;
Yet to the friends that I cherish Prayer has restored me again.

The Old Testament by Rev. H.B.Barks

There's GENESIS that notes the spring And origin of everything;
And EXODUS that gives the law
With many wonders Israel saw.
LEVITICUS hints at the plan
Of God for saving fallen man.
The book of NUMBERS loves to tell The march of growth of Israel, While DEUTERONOMY again
Proclaims the law to sinful man.
Then JOSHUA, at God's behest,
By force the Promised Lan possessed, Yet JUDGES speaks of warlike acts,
And other sad, disturbing facts,
But RUTH beholds the line increase That gives to earth the Prince of Peace.

First SAMUEL recounts the ways Of rulers in those early days,
And second SAMUEL must needs Records King David's valiant deeds.
First KINGS relates the well-known story Of Solomn and all his glory; While second KINGS with shame describes The follies of the chosen tribes.

Then come the kindred articles Of first and second CHRONICLES;
And these, since Judah won't repent,
Show her decline and banishment;
But EZRA writes of hearts that yearn,
And he and many more return,
And he and NEHEMIAH stand Together for the Patherland.
Yet ESTHER shows that many Jews Held no such patriotic views.

JOB and his friends on reason lean,
'Till God appears upon the scene;
The PSALMS teach nations to rejoice,
Before the Lord, with heart and voice.
Wise PROVERBS it is good to read, And quaint ECCLESISIASTES heed.
The pious love to dwell upon The mystic SONG OF SOLOMON.

Devout ISAIAH's golden chimes Ring out, forecasting Gospel times;
But JEREMIAH tells us why, Loved Zion was condemned to die,
And LAMENTATIONS, sadder grown, Bewails the city overthrown.
EZEKIEL views the nation's guilt,
Her city falling then rebuilt,
And DANIEL of wondrous signs Gives man a glimpse of God's designs.

HOSEA STANDS ON PLEADING GROUND:

In JOEL promises abound
But AMOS strikes no tuneful chord,
For men and lands that God abhorred.
And OBADIAH stoutly fights Against the mocking Edomites; Yet JONAH by Jehovah's grace Evangelized the heathen race,
And MICAH wakened thoughts of praise Where e'er he sang of latter days;
But NAHUM not a word of pity Bespeaks for Nimrod's famous city.
HABAKKUK faithfully declares Five grievous woes,
Three solemn prayers;
Thus ZEPHANIAH sights the shame
Of Judah, then a glorious name;
And HAGGAI would God's House rebuild,
That with due praise it might be filled;
And ZACHARIAH sees release
For Israel, and lasting peace, While MALACHI completes the sum Declaring that the Lord shall come.

Summary

The story-books are seventeen,
The prophets, four and twenty in line,
The six poetic books between Make up the number thirty-nine.
And every book from Heaven sent, God's wonderful Old Testament.

Five Reasons why we should Pray
I John 5:14 - 16

1. That all may be saved.
I Tim. 2:4, II Peter 3:9
2. That we glorify the Father in the Son John 14:13
3. That we may receive Mark 11:24
4. That we may have no sin Psalm 66:18
5. We are to cry day and night
Luke 18:7

Seven Signs of a true Conversion
Matt.7:21-29

In that day -

Authority - Jesus tells of a certainty what will happen in that day Is your foundation sure?

1. Love to do God's will verse 21-24
2. Love God's Word - I Peter 2:2
If you are tested, verse 3
Have a good "breakfast" every day, then you'll grow.
3. Love for God's people - I John 3:14
4. Desire to save others - John 1:35-45
5. Tender conscience toward sin - II Kings 5:18
6. Love to go on with God, to grow - Phil.3:13,14
7. Love for prayer - Acts 9:11

"He that is mastered by Christ, is the master of every circumstance."

Undiscourageable Prayers

God's delays are not denials. I Sam.1:27

Why some of our answers are delayed....to get us where God can give us a far larger answer.

God hears, "God that cannot lie" Titus 1:2

will answer. II Cor.1:20, II Tim. 2:13

God will answer the church's prayer. Elijah prayed earnestly and then he prayed again - James 5:17

1. The Bible is the word of God
2. Jesus Christ is the Son of God, in a sense in which no other is
3. The birth of Jesus was supernatural
4. The death of Jesus was substitutionary
5. Man is the product of special creation
6. Man is a sinner, fallen from original righteousness, and apart from God's redeeming grace, is hopelessly lost.
7. Man is justified by faith in the atoning blood of Christ, - the result is supernatural regeneration from above.

1. The Bible contains the word of God
2. Jesus Christ is A son of God, in the sense in which that all men are.
3. The birth of Jesus was natural.
4. The death of Jesus was exemplary.
5. Man is the product of evolution.
6. Man is the unfortunate victim of environment, but through self-culture can make good.
7. Man is justified by works, in following Christ's example: result- natural development from within.

A poem to Gertrude on the birth of Harold
by W.L.Swallen

Oh Gertrude dear, blest gift from God
A mother of children five For thee we pray and onward plod Till we at the goal arrive.

Thank God today for such as thee Through whom great souls are born Who yield them selves entirely Christ ever to adorn.

Prenatal blessings found to be The fruitage of His will Through faith and love and purity His promises fulfil.

Dear Sallie Lou and Jackie too
With Teddy and with Hal,
All living monuments to you True to the original.

The last to come was hearty Hal With joy illumined face Though not a supernatural
A gift of God's free grace.

Though now your children are but four Together you are seven,
With one already gone before Is waiting you in Heaven.

So perfect is your family
In consecrated love God's looking down most patiently

Birth-days and Old Age

Man starts his life in this world with a cry Though joy and gladness fill the scene throughout He quickly grows to manhood proud and stout
And feels so fine he dreams he'll never die.
But later he's assured the end is nigh
Then if prepared he meets it with great joy
And he and friends the time with songs employ But unprepared man meets it with a sigh.

On this he needs to ask no question, never,
But simply use the strength the Lord doth give,
Then with the Lord-given powers his own engage For every task on earth e'en to old age.
Thus he may live as God would have him live Then going he shall live with Christ forever.

I want to be like Jesus
He was so kind and true,
And since I know He loves me
I want to to love Him too.

Cho. I want to be like Jesus Like Jesus every day Be humble, kind and loving
In all my work and play.

Be always kind and true
And follow in His foot-steps
In everything I do.

And by His power I may Do just what Jesus tells me
And do it every day.

Morning Meditations

When we arise at early dawn
And tell God of our needs, He hears and with His bounteous gifts Our asking far exceeds.

Now Jesus helps our thinking, too Reveals the thoughts worth while; Enables us God's will to know And do it with a smile.

God's/beauty lay in wealth
On earth the sea and sky
The glories of the setting sun
The spangled dome on high.

God opens hearts to spiritual truth
To riches of His love To depths and heights of grace divine Delights of heaven above.

Apple and cherry blossoms sweet Bespeak the luscious fruit;
Within the seed there lies the tree Limbs, trunk, and bearing-root.

Develops each as to its kind In taste and beauty rare,
In color, form, and usefulness Upon its twigs doth bear.

The Philosopher

A thousand nice things that you eat Enjoy and keep your health, But were it not for what you do You'd now have no real wealth.

Ben Franklin, too, see what he did Extracting from the clouds
The fire-bolt of the lightning's glare
To entertain the crowds.

And may we never get so wise
That we shall God ignore And think our own perverted thought Enough, and want no more.

The world for worldly use alone Say some, who know not much,
But they will learn when its too late There'll be a place for such.

The humble and discreet do find It better to be wise,
And all that God has made and taught To keenly scrutinize.

God has revealed in what He made His wisdom all divine
But He has shown us in His word
His wonders more sublime.

God
In Christ/has Himself revealed Salvation through His Son Atonement blood-bought sacrifice
All graciously His own.

Praise God all glory to His name And gratitude for grace,
His peace and holy righteousness Shine ever from His face.

Eternity is not too long For saints to praise Him there With Jesus in His mansions, too,
We shall His glory share.

Things Worth while

We often loose the really great For want of thought to estimate;
See moments in their proper size,
Their worth, you then can realize.

The really great are things worth while,
The good the hopeful pleasing smile;
Just to be helpful kind and true, ~~as things we~~ Are things we always ought to do.

Count nothing small that helps to bear
The heavy cares that wear and tear;
Some reckon useless things that 're small Because they 're common ~~things~~ to all.

only

A smile will often help the faint
It also helps the good old saint;
God gave us smiles because they 're good And bids us use them when we should.

All that is really worth one's while Is greatly helped just by a smile;
Take time to properly reflect
And soon you'll see the good effect.

Oft we're too anxious to make haste
And only precious time may waste;
For too much speed just for a while May throw the foremost back a mile.

'Tis the most fitting makes for worth
If only ~~eye~~ conscience issues forth;
All sluggish senses to awake
The proper use of time to make.

Its golden, every moment's worth Enriching all things ^{are on} earth;
It starts the fires and what is more Oft puts the hindmost to the fore.

Who proves himself to others kind Will never need a friend to find;
Time waits not for the slow of ~~mind~~ ^{heart}, E'en though they're ~~many of that kind~~ EVER GOING TO START.

Time waits not for the low or great
It leaves him reconing on his fate; Lookout for things that are worth while And meet them always with a smile.

Yielding the Saviour's Call

O my heart would sing of the Lord my King, and the joy in Christ my Saviour.
I am His I know for He tells me so,
And I'll reign with Him forever.

I am yielding all at the Saviour's Call
To His service now and ever.
It is good to know that He loves me so,
and I'll reign with Him forever.

When the day grows gray and my sins cloud th'way, Then't is sweet to trust Him wholly.
For the darkest night turns to bright day light,
When I trust my Saviour fully.

When I grieve the Lord and forget His word,
It is then I need remember, How on Calvary Jesus died for me, and is now my present Saviour.

All my love of care He has provided to bear,
As I yield to Him completely.
Then my soul finds rest and my life is blest,
As the days glide by so sweetly.

Chorus

O I praise His Name for the joy that came,
When I gave Him all forever.
Now with Him I walk, and with Him I talk.
What a blessed life together!

Tune - (Tune-C. H. Gabriel's "where the Gates Swing Outward Never")

The Romance of Life

In The Romance of Life's Journey
There is child-hood, youth, and age.
There is glory seen in passing
As we view each separate stage.

Child-hood has its fascination
As it ^{always} ~~purposes~~ something new;
Gives the somber days of duty
A more brilliant cheerful hue.

Youth is active, full of vigor,
With imaginative powers;
Like the early morning rain drops Soon ~~bring on the~~ thunder showers.

^{turns into} Youth is buoyant, wild, aggressive, Dreams of doing things worth while;
Looks for something that will startle,
Is enchanted with good style.

Manhood tends to be more tranquil More of caution and assurance;
More inclined to stable structure And unchanging countenance.

This stage feels the weight of problems,
Likes to get the cinch on things;
Likes to be the moving center, E'en to flying with steel wings.

He's the founder and the builder,
Also motor and the helm;
Lays foundations for the future,
For ~~For~~ old age the sedate realm.

I want to be like Jesus
He was so kind and true;
And just because He loves me I want to love Him too.

I want to be like Jesus
In all I do and say;
Be always kind and truthful
In all my work and play.

And by His grace I may;
And do it every day.

In all things kind and true;
And follow in His footsteps
In every thing I do.

Growing old

"Let us grow lovely growing old,
So many fine things to do-Ivory and lace and gold.
And silk need not be new.
There's healing in old trees we're told Old streets a glamour hold, Why may not I, as well as these, Grow lovely, growing old?"

An aged man in an old arm chair:
A golden light from the western sun.
His wife by his side with her silver hair,
And the open book of God close by.
Sweet on the bay the gloaming falls,
And bright is the glow of the evening star;
But clearer to them are the jasper walls
And the golden streets of the land afar."

Growing old is like the day, When the sun is setting gray;
Soon the heavens are aglow
With the sunset's flush and flow.
Heaven grows rich as we proceed, Lesser that of earthly need.
Brighter as we near the scene, Ours, in Christ's life, is serene.
In the sunset's purple sheen Future glory may be seen.
Joy increases constantly
And will through eternity.
Earth recedes and charms no more
As we gaze on yonder shore.

+ The Four Freedoms

Man's most essential good on earth
Is not his lust and greed;
Its not what folks most commonly Are apt to think they need.

Its not what most men think about
In time of store and flood;
Nor what the selfish war-lords wish While shedding human blood.

There are four basic factual truths Which make a life worth while;
Without which man becomes a slave Despised and even vile.

Man's freedom's felt in worship first In faithfulness to God;
It has to do with all mankind
At home and far abroad.

When men's not free to worship God According to God's will, He's held beneath a hindering force Which will his spirit kill.

Man's freedom's to speech extends To every phase of life;
Where speech is checked, Man's thought grows dwarfed
In stead of peace there's strife.

Free speech secures the best for all Withholds no good from any;
It reaches far through out the world And looks well to the many.

Inorder that there may be peace
Men must be satisfied;
The things essential for his life Dare never be denied.

God's ample provision for all men,
That they may live in peace;
When justice reigns and honesty,
All discontent will cease.

Grandfathers Rockingchair

There is sunshine all around us
There is joy as free as air,
Where our smiles keep on a smiling
For sweet peace is always there:
With our loved friends kind and gracious,
Who their gifts so pleasing share When bestowing of their goodness
In this restful rocking chair.
I shall join you in fond memories
While I'm calmly rocking there.
And Dear Sallie will be smiling
While I'm rocking in this chair.

When the clouds have cleared from o'er us And the sun is setting bright,
When the red hibiscus glitters
In the scintillating light, When the orange blossom's perfume Sweetens all the atmosphere,
And the distant choral music Echoes here and every where:
I'll be on the porch with Sallie
And be thinking of you there, While I'm rocking slowly, -resting In this easy rocking chair.

When the song birds in the bushes Sing their love songs to their mates, When the blue jay struts a-scoffing
At the enemy he hates,
When the sunsets' purple streamlines Tints the heavens into glow,
And the evening hours of daylight Yield to calmer poise, -and slow;
I'll be talking here with Sallie, Reminiscing about your care,
Thinking of you, praying for you
In this comf'y rocking chair.

When the mocking birds come singing
And the meadow lark is gay,
All the children happy-hearted Grow hilarious at their play,
When the round of toil is over And the laborer seeks his rest, While the youth are out a-courtin' Choosing each his own sweet best;
I shall fondly sit a-rocking
In this good old rocking chair, Till the Lord shall come and take us Into glory over there.

+ Four Freedoms (concluded)

And free from fear of every kind Means happiness indeed;
An unlocked home, a quiet night,
With everything you need.

That means the leveling down of wealth,
And full fledged charity;
Ignoring race and color too,
And e'en mentality.

It means that every human soul
Shall have enough to live, Enough to keep his family And have some left to give.

But tell me how this may be done,
With human sinful men?
With human nature as it is,
What use such thinking then?

So would it not far better be,
To wait upon the Lord;
Forsake all sin, depend on Him,
Which all can well afford.

Not what men think but what God says,
"Ye, must be born again".
Not sin but Christ must rule in man,
Then none will e'er complain.

Then peace, real peace, when Christ shall reign O'er all the earth and sea.
All swords and guns into plowshares Shall then be moulded be.

Let every one then pray and work
For that great blessed day, When Christ shall rule in righteousness;
When Jesus comes to stay.

Then earth again shall find its own,
A wondrous place to be;
When Christ Himself shall rule the world And none shall rise to see.

THE STORY OF THE HYMN, BLESSED HOPE

IT WAS WHILE MRS. SWALLEN AND I WERE MISSIONARIES IN KOREA. WE WERE UNABLE TO FIND A SUITABLE HYMN ON THE SUBJECT OF THE BLESSED COMING OF OUR LORD, "THE BLESSED HOPE." ONE DAY MRS. SWALLEN SAID TO ME, "I WISH YOU WOULD WRITE A HYMN ON THE BLESSED HOPE." I REPLIED, "I WILL TRY, GOD HELPING ME." I DID TRY AGAIN AND AGAIN, SCORES OF TIMES, BUT WITHOUT SUCCESS. MY MIND SEEMED A BLANK WHENEVER I MADE AN EFFORT TO WRITE A POEM ON "BLESSED HOPE." I NEVER GOT A LINE OR A PHRASE TO START WRITING.

THEN ONE DAY WHILE I WAS HOLDING A SERIES OF EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS IN ONE OF MY COUNTRY CHURCHES, THE LORD WAS PRESENT IN GREAT POWER. THERE WERE ABOUT ONE HUNDRED DECISIONS FOR CHRIST DURING THE WEEK. ON A WEDNESDAY EVENING WE WERE HAVING A GREAT TIME, THE HOLY SPIRIT WAS MANIFEST IN GREAT POWER AND THERE WERE MANY DECISIONS FOR CHRIST. AFTER THE MEETING, AS I WENT TO MY ROOM, IT OCCURRED TO ME THAT THIS WOULD BE A GOOD TIME TO WRITE "BLESSED HOPE." I LIT THE CANDLE, GOT PAPER AND PENCIL AND SAT DOWN AT THE TABLE TO WRITE BUT INSTANTLY MY MIND WAS A BLANK. SO I PREPARED AND RETIRED FOR THE NIGHT.

ABOUT MIDNIGHT I LAY WITH MY EYES OPENED WIDE AND BEHOLD, I SAW CLEARLY WHAT APPEARED TO BE A PLAQUE OF GOLD, IN SIZE ABOUT 2 BY 4 FEET, WITH CLEARLY INSCRIBED UPON IT THE FOLLOWING FOUR STANZAS OF "BLESSED HOPE."

BLESSED HOPE! LIVING HOPE!
JESUS ONCE CAME, HE IS COMING AGAIN.
HE WHO HIMSELF OUR SALVATION HATH WROUGHT.
HE WHO FROM HEAVEN SUCH BLESSINGS HATH BROUGHT;
HE WHO ON EARTH OUR LOST SOULS ONCE HATH SOUGHT, JESUS IS COMING AGAIN.

BLESSED HOPE! PRECIOUS HOPE!
THO' HE HAS GONE, HE IS COMING AGAIN.
HE WHO HIS COMING SEEMS NOW TO DELAY, MAY FROM THE HEAVENS RETURN ANY DAY, COMING TO TAKE US ALL HOME FAR AWAY,
JESUS IS COMING AGAIN.

BLESSED HOPE! GLORIOUS HOPE!
PRAISE YE THE LORD, HE IS COMING AGAIN.
COMING WITH CROWNS WHICH WE ALL SHALL THEN WEAR, COMING IN GLORY WHICH WE SHALL THEN SHARE, THAT WILL BE GLORY TO MEET JESUS THERE.

ACTS 1:11
PHIL. 3:20, 21
TITUS 2:11-14

BLESSED HOPE! SACRED HOPE!
WATCH YE AND PRAY, FOR HE MAY COME TODAY.
COMING, IT MAY BE, AT NIGHT OR AT NOON, PROMISE THERE IS OF HIS COMING, YEA SOON, THEN WE SHALL FEAST WITH OUR GRACIOUS BRIDEGROOM, JESUS IS COMING AGAIN.

I CRIED OUT, "WHY, THIS IS 'BLESSED HOPE'." I WAS QUITE AWAKE, AND IT WAS NO DREAM. I THREW BACK THE COVERS, GOT UP, SAT AT THE TABLE AND PREPARED TO WRITE. THEN THE PLAQUE OF GOLD WITH THE FOUR STANZAS OF THE "BLESSED HOPE" WAS RIGHT BEFORE ME ON THE TABLE AND I RAPIDLY COPIED ALL THE WORDS, LEST IT DISAPPEAR AND I SHOULD LOSE IT. WHEN I HAD WRITTEN THE LAST WORD OF THE FOUR STANZAS, THE VISION DISAPPEARED. BUT I HAD A COPY OF THE HYMN "BLESSED HOPE" WHICH, VERY HUMBLY, MOST GRATEFULLY AND HAPPILY I PRESENTED TO MRS. SWALLEN WHEN I RETURNED HOME. I WROTE THE TUNE AND PROF. D. R. MALSBARY ARRANGED THE PARTS. THAT IS HOW THE LORD GAVE ME THE HYMN, "BLESSED HOPE", AND I PRAISE HIS NAME FOR IT.

My Galleries.

We were watching the passengers boarding the steamer at Koko, interested to see who might be fellow travelers. One gay woman below middle age fluttered on board holding her large trimmed straw hat from Horning W. Her hair was unusually high & white cheeks, belied her period's blond hair, and for days when skirts were longer her skirt ones were unusual.

We all checked her to be an actress.

Several days later she sat down to a table where I was sitting. She enjoyed telling of her travels - she had played in a traveling company in Moscow, several places in Africa, in India. It was all very interesting.

"My dear young Amber pendant is very beautiful," she said to me.

"I had a very expensive chain stolen from my cabin. Yes I was very careless and left it there as my jewelry when I went to dinner, and when I came back they were gone and I never found them. They were very large and beautiful. Do believe me!"

She was a blond beggar woman whose ~~hair~~ ^{hair} was budding near the store one morning on S.S. I asked her if she didn't want to get nearer a class so that she could hear better. "O I don't know any thing, and my clothes are so thin, I'll just stay here. I love to hear the singing" Her son ^{brings} comes for her every morning & comes for her at the end of S.S. a neat by woman spoke up.

So I watch at the end of S.S. and there was her son, a lad some 14 yrs. - too old it seemed the woman S.S. and so he left his blind old mother, and returned for her at the end of the home. I watched for her each Sunday and rarely did they miss coming. Her face would light up in such a happy smile when I would greet her.

SWALLOW

I learned that they lived by begging, and slept in the extra room of a kind hearted family. The boy would sometimes go off to the towns to beg, and he said he had been away as far as P.M. - 200 miles away. But he always returned.
He was ~~not~~ trying his hand at work that as he had had no training and unusual jobs were being for a young lad he had had only moderate success. A boy that was so good with poor old mother surely deserved a better chance.

Hidden Candles in Korea.

It was the time of the Korean New Year. All Seoul was gay and festive and dressed in the brightest of Oriental colors. The New Year is the happiest season of the year when friends call on friends and the young call on their parents' friends to wish them the blessings of the New Year. The Bible women saw a beautiful grandmother in one of the old aristocratic homes who would be delighted to have the foreign friends come to call. My friend and I dressed carefully in our best for the happy occasion.

As we entered the courtyard a little serving maid took us to the old lady's apartment. Madame Cha greeted us cordially at the door and slipping off our shoes on the veranda we entered. Inside the door, following the prescribed form, the Bible women first. Then my friend and I in turn knelt with our heads nearly touching the floor and bowed to the old lady, repeating the New Year's greeting. Youth feels a benediction kneeling thus before beautiful old age.

Then we chatted - asked our hosts about her health, about her grand-children, and she asked my friend about her little girl and she wrote a man about friends in the church. Soon the new grand-daughter-in-law entered. She was followed by the serving maid and younger members of the family who served us with special New Year's delicacies, persimmons cooked in liquid granges, orientat dates, sweet meats, and a draught of liquid honey delicately perfumed. One felt like the little boy who never wanted to stop eating, for down in the depths Jones' being, comes the fear that one may never have another opportunity to enjoy such delicacies.

The little woman spoke, "I think the foreign ladies would like to see your new daughter-in-law. They have never seen any so beautiful as her." No one could suggest that we go over to the young people's apartment and told the bride to show us every thing. The bride was beautiful with her fair pink complexion, her black hair well oiled and combed in the style that all the women of the Capitol have followed for hundreds of years. She opened her great brass-timbered chests and showed us her twenty or more suits of clothes, enough to last for years.

 Then she took down large black and red squared boxes and we knew the best had been reserved to the last.
 The old polished brass boxes were opened and the bride took out the family treasures, beeblooms worn by the brides of the family for generations. There were carved coral ornaments, wide embroidered hair ornaments, gold rings, jade rings and coral rings, and finally, the loveliest of all, ~~two~~ two great pieces of carved amber nearly as large as one's hand - filled with the Runskins of long ago. All these priceless treasures had been handed down from generation to generation and worn by the brides on the day they entered the family.
 Our little bride had never been to school, but we were thankful that she had the love and guiding care of a Christian great mother-in-law.

A certain Missionary has never bought or worn a piece of amber, even a tiny drop.
 But hundreds of her foster children and friends are sure that in heaven there is a woman waiting for her, shuddered not only with demons, fears but also amber.

One of these amber gems is a beautiful girl now 18 years old. Her father made an engagement for her while she was still a child, and with the contract money took unto himself a concubine. When Chung Wha, for that is the name we shall call her, reached her fifteenth birthday her father-in-law-to-be came to make arrangements for the wedding. "You cannot be a Christian in my home, remember that," he said. But Chung Wha replied, "I won't get married then, for I shall always be a Christian." Despite her stand the arrangements for the wedding progressed and little Chung Wha became dejected. Here she as a Christian, had been devotedly attending the Village Sunday school, had given her heart to Jesus, and now she was, against her will and against the Biblical injunction, to be married to an unbeliever and into a family openly antagonistic to her faith. She tried to think what to do and finally recalled the name of a Bible woman in Pyongyang. Borrowing a little money from a friend she started for Pyoung Yang, riding on the train for the first time in her life. When she reached the great city she asked a coolie to tell her how to get to the district where the Potts woman lived, and as the coolie was going in that direction he guided her. By further inquiry she found her friends and told her story. The Potts woman assured her that she had done right in coming to her and promised to help her. She notified the parents who immediately came after Chung-t'ia. They tried to drag Chung-t'ia to the railroad station but the Potts woman and a few young policemen warned the father that he could not force the girl to marry against her will.

The Potts woman told the missionary lady and her husband about the splendid faith of the little girl and asked their advice. After consultation the missionary said, "If you can get the father to sign a statement releasing all claim on his daughter until she is 7 years of age, I will assume responsibility for her and send her to school." The Potts woman with the aid of a Christian uncle of Chung-t'ia's was able to get the father to sign such a release. What else could he do with a daughter who had decided to stand every persecution rather than give up her faith?

The Missionary, sent Chung to be in the Academy for Women and Girls in P'yu Chien where she is studying and earning a part of her expenses by working in the Self Help Department. She has blossomed into promising young womanhood under the helpful guidance received at school. And the subject in which she is most interested is the Bible, for her ambition is to go back and try to lead her parents and fellow villagers to know and love Christ.

A pretty girl with soft wavy hair and expressive ^{dark} eyes entered the P'yu Chien Academy not long ago. "We are so glad that your daughter came to school," the teacher said to her mother. "Well, said the mother, "I've tried and tried to get her married but all the eligible young men want educated wives, so there was nothing to do but send her to your school. She is too big and tall and far too old to go to the public school.

A young man came into the Principal's office accompanied by a young woman of about twenty-two years of age. "I am teacher in the _____ Church Elementary School, and the Principal, unable to leave his work, asked me to bring his sister here and help her enter your school. She has never been to school before, and the brother hopes you will be very kind to her and teach her well." After the school had gone the young woman, who was quite embarrassed over the unusual experience of entering school said: "O teacher, it is so foolish for me to come to school. I'm too old to learn anything and my mother did her best to discourage me, but my brother said I had to come. You see, my husband is a Lenin in the Young Young Government Middle School and my brother said I just had to study, while I have the chance. My mother is taking care of my little boy. But teacher, how can I ever learn at my age." I assured her that she had plenty of good company in the school who were doing just the same thing, and that it would not be many days before she would feel perfectly at home.

May I give just one more illustration to show the great opportunities of the Mission Schools in Korea.

It had been very difficult for Suk Roome to come to school but the strained relationships at home made her most unhappy. She was a young woman of twenty four, with a young mother-in-law of thirty six years of age and her husband was twenty years old. Suk Roome was an earnest Christian but her husband's family were Spirit worshippers and leaders in that sect. Her husband had gone to Japan to study and his mother, jealous of Suk Roome did all in her power to alienate her son's affections for his wife urging him to divorce Suk Roome and marry an educated girl. It was becoming impossible for her to stay in her father-in-law's house and so she asked her own father and mother to keep her until school. When they refused, Suk Roome said, "There is nothing for me to do but die," and in her desperation she started for the railroad tracks. When her mother saw Suk Roome's desperate earnestness, she prevailed the lady by giving her sufficient money to pay her tuition for one term.

at school Duk Sooin was an earnest and conscientious student and earned her board and room by working in the Self Help Department.

One day the Principal of the school received a letter from Duk Sooin's husband asking in no uncertain terms why we allowed a ^{married} student in our school without the consent of her husband or his family.

We answered in like tone that his wife had been a sincere, credible student, she had entered with her own father's permission and a recommendation from her father, and further said that we did not feel our responsibility extended. If he wished to call we would be glad to see him.

And indeed - one day he surprised us by calling. He was a nice looking young mechanic with pleasing appearance and manner.
 He wanted his wife to go home with him, and we knew that if she did not, he would use it as grounds for divorce. We assured him that our aim in education for women was to prepare them to make better

Rome, wives and mothers, as well as Christian leaders in their churches and communities, and of course she must go home with him. Mr also told him that she had been a real help and comfort in the dormitory among the other girls, and was an exceptionally fine young woman, and Mr hoped that he would do all he could to readjust the situation at home and make it possible for her to remain in school while he was away from home.

The School Secretary, a very understanding man, and the capable Matron in a very kindly way gave much the same advice.
The matron happened to have a box of Korean stick candy on hand, and wrapping a dozen sticks in paper, she gave it to Jack saying, "Share this with your husband in the main and take some to your little girl. She will be so glad to see you," and she further let her know she would say and do when she ~~was~~ reached home.

A few days later we were almost overcome with joy when we saw the young couple returning. Was the young man bringing his wife back to school, and had he decided not to get the divorce? He seemed as happy as one who were practicing for them, and told the secretary that he had thought deeply on the matter. "Maybe my mother has been deceiving me, and I have come very near doing my wife a great wrong. I want her to stay in school, and not go to my aunt's," he said.

After the husband had gone, Jack Bonnie told the Matron her side of the story. They had not talked on the main, but that evening after dinner when the mother-in-law wanted to make the evening sacrifices, her husband said, "Let us not do it tonight, mother, since Jack Bonnie is with us," and turning to her he said, "Where is the candy, the Matron sent?" When the family had gathered again, he said, "To look at the little building up there, I thought there couldn't be much of a school. They have only a form room Class building and a small office building, not much to look at, but when I went into the office I thought I was on holy ground. The teachers spoke to me so kindly, and were so interested in us, it certainly is a wonderful place. I wish my sister could go there." Suk Ronnie told them that she had not meant to go against their wishes but had hoped to study only a few years whether her stand was away, and was ~~now~~ willing to do what ever they thought best. Then the grand-mother-in-law and the young-mother-in-law in turn expressed that they had been mistaken and unfair to Suk Ronnie and would she forgive them. We were nearly as happy as Suk Ronnie to have such a highly arrested.

The Mission schools in Korea are giving an education to many of the girls and young women in that land, but more than that, they are bringing into their lives the freedom, the sunshine, the hopes and ambitions, and Christian love which is the right of young women everywhere. These are essential if she is to make the home ideal, be a leader in the church and a blessing to her community.

Admiral ...

My Dear ...

I have been thinking of writing you for some time but have not had time. And all because I am before the law & had to attend. But it is all right now I trust. Only I know that you will be surprised & surprised by reason of so long a time without news from me.
 I hope this letter will cheer all of you and you will be easy now. I shall be home now. It seemed to be the beginning of the for me to start - when I did too & just started.
 So much for that. The last letter I received from you was dated May 31 & reached me in Portland June 9 - the morning I started back. It was long delayed by some accident. And knowing that I ought to ^{have} received one on the 5th & surely expected it on the 7th but when June 8 came the letter I really can't tell you all my thoughts. At the time I picked up a cross paper & wrote on the margin the lines in verse in part expressive of my deep emotion. The verse ran off naturally too & I copied them & you may find them on the accompanying sheet. I have all you good for they tell you honestly of my health of love. I prayed that - but would I keep me from anything & He did give me much peace

And I had awaited some ² message which came word of my just before we started back, I can tell you how happy it made me feel.
I intended also staying longer in Book Ching but our work there seemed about done and everything seemed to indicate that - I should direct my steps toward home, as it is getting very hot and the rainy season is drawing near.
You mentioned about Vandy Chai with the money &
I remember that you hoped I would not mistake you, my Drury. There is no other woman that would have done so much as you have done.
I have only thoughts of praise & love, we were amuch in a hurry as to know what had become of Chai, since we did not see him in Book Ching, Chai of Song thought he took it upon himself to say the word and go back, and upon reaching here we find that - this is what he did. Just like a Korean to do so. However if the cow pleases you very well, I hope it is a good one. You did exactly right in sending Chai as you did, you decided very wisely, and Chai's slight of course goes on to Book Ching with the money. However that is no matter now, I tried to get back here as soon as possible but you know that - all as well but the rain detained me so that it took four days to travel two days journey. So we reached the point at last, I find that we started with my bag and I hope you sent me so thoughtfully & then also, which I was glad to get.

Now I am expecting that you home on Monday June 21st or 22nd I thought about not leaving 28th So this will be the last letter you may expect - unless The Lord should direct different; You know it is still possible for me to come sooner, or even later & do not like to set times yet - we can scarcely help it. You will understand that - all the letters that you wrote after May 31 & before June 10 will have missed me in Pook Chey so that - I will not get them yet for a few days - until they will be returned home.

So this trip will be marked by many varied experiences among others that of buying & selling of live stock. But Praise be to His name it is all in the Lord's work for we are His. My horse has carried me safely to Pook Chey & back here. But he is proving to be a very ordinary worker. He is the very finest specimen of the Korean pony, & I am a skillful horseman or used to be, & think I am yet; but - it was only the care of the Lord for me that - has brought me through in safety. He would be easy enough to manage in the saddle, but one has no strength upon a load that is in no position to handle him. So I have decided that he must leave my hands even tho' I cannot sell him at a low rate. I cannot; what he is worth but shall sell him for what I can get. I got enough of him on way to Pook Chey & decided that - if I got safely there I would sell him for any price. But every thing was so dead there that - I could only get 140 dollars, and so I thought - I would ride him back to him by road.

him say. But he was even much worse coming back than going up. I shall not attempt to rid him on a good any more. We cannot expect to get much for anything that we want to sell, so I may expect to sell him below cost. But I shall not let a few dollars stand in the way. I shall sell him and buy either a (Magpie) & 7/8 or a cow, or both.
Now I just thought if you do not like the cow I've bought let me know & I will try my hand once more. Then we can take our choice. If you start a letter back early the following morning I will get it in time. ~~Don't write~~ I will have plenty of money so don't worry about that.
Now my love I send you, hope you will read in peace till I come home which will not be long. I have just opened a can of cherries which had been after 4 days of sweet fasting. Your berries are coming in fine now. I shall bring nothing suitable home this time. I am being kept in perfect health. This is of the Lord. Till we meet may the Lord watch & preserve Theodore. "My father" We can do the best for the Lord when we are like peace. So do it just because you cannot go out on Sunday. There will be one very happy man in a few days when I get back. It will be a long stay of a house that the Lord will bless the seed of the. I will write that paper with pleasure to the good, a kind of a love. I love you will

My Dear Father

Got up here early Sunday morn.
 I must tell you what a thing we had to get here, I wrote you Sat. Morn. that the latter by the Merrick. Well our boat was cleared and every thing ready to start - by noon, - but - the Captains of the two ships got together & had a spree both got drunk and we just lay idle in the harbor until 4 P.M. when when the Merrick moved out South and our ship started up and followed after her. Our Captain was so drunk he could not walk straight nor talk rational, but he took the bridge & no under officer dared open his mouth. He was very restless & spoke some several times saying that it was too late to go to N.E. (I don't ride) & that he would not think of leaving there all night - as there is no good harbor. I told him to stay in N.E. where we were, but he wanted to go with the Merrick so they could be together in 3 hours for the night - 2 hours south of N.E. from not a little uneasy. But I did not know what to do or say to him, but I made him read and some make mentions were made of letters.

We had gotten out 2 or 4 miles ^{westward} more, when the Kurrans began making a fuss, the boat was full of Merchants and this was a great loss to them, the deck began to be crowded, and they begged that I should intercede for them. I told the Captain how they were & I told (summarily). I went up on the bridge & told him as kindly as I could that he had better turn back - that there would be a big time if he did not; that it would be much better for him to turn round and go back and lay in 1/2 of I for the night It seemed to have effect. He instantly wheeled the boat round & steered on point of I & anchored in a cove for the night - then came up here early Sunday morning. If Meyer Co. knew this I hardly think this Captain would run another trip. Sunday was a quiet day we were very tired & could not do much preaching. But we did a little. I thought much of you & the people in Wren. Did not get Revelation quite read though I almost finished it yesterday - will probably have finished it did some testifying. Had a Big Sale of Books for 900 cash. I must of sold out almost all the 100 books & Calendars.

One man bought 13 books + 3 calendars one of way kind of books. It is more like winter up here, every thing froze up and snow. But it was warm & thawed a good deal yesterday & last night - it did not freeze. We will go into Park Chung today if the Lord wills.
 We are both well. R + G have every thing to make me comfortable You will smile when I tell you that though I went first class I ate Korean food because I could not go the awful poor foreign lunch. The Korean diet was fine & I paid just what.

We know you are praying for us and I feel that the Lord is with us & this shall be a good trip.
 I have a chance to send this by the Char Yong when she returns So you will be glad to hear that we are getting along I know.
 I hope you are well & that God will give you grace to stay alone without Jews. I do not worry because I know that God will keep you.

I am anxious to know how the S.S. went off last Sunday. It might be well if you inquired just a little of Ma. & Chor & boys, you may be able to help it some.

March 7, 1872. $\frac{2}{10}$

My dear Alice

I am most so happy to write but I must tell you why. Our $\frac{2}{10}$ of here is $\frac{2}{10}$ of the best last winter before the ~~the~~ class was over. has come back on the Lord and will not come back in prayer. It is not pleasant to be here. But still when our job here is in it - it is not easy to change. But the Lord has so blessed the brethren here that they got together & decided to prepare a room for the prophets in a Christian's house, and A has just come & told me that we are to go to his house tomorrow morning. & the brethren are going keep us while we are here. Then I will be able to teach the women too. This is something very unexpected & for which we ought to be very thankful. That will be more like a house of God. I promise God's much for his wonderful blessing. You will be glad to hear - although you already know that God's blessing is greatly making things. Don't stand on your feet - wait - trust - upon the Lord - you will know it - to pass. I cannot tell you all. But it is blessed to work with the Lord whether in spirit or in.

Chen sends a letter along with money to be sent to his wife. If you see her in any some way can tell her to get Chen's clothes all ready so that we can start - work as soon as the Lord's good after we return. So you will let Mrs. Chen ~~take~~ have money pay her all up & if a little on ahead it will be all right. And you will have my suit made with cotton in it - but not too much - only a little cotton & wear underware - fit it to hot water. There is too much cotton in it.

You will please see or ask Mr. Chamberlain when the Steamers go north and let me know of first-coarces. I would like to go about the first of April but I must go when the Steamer goes, whether a little before that time or a little later. Now there is a great opening here to spend the winter and I want to be at it all I can. I know that you rejoice with me even if you do have to be much at home about.

I received Miss Charlotte's letter today dear child I do'd like to read it. Tell her papa is so glad that Charlotte reads her book every day I try to please our ma. When Charlotte is good & minds mama. papa is happy when she is not good papa is sad. How I would like to see you all but I will be home soon. With much Love & many kisses for you & the children

My Dear Sister

Yesterday was I think, so far the happiest day of our life. Because I could spend the Sabbath with the young people here who seem very much like my children, - indeed they treat me as great, more than like a father than I have ever been. Before I came to this place - I was so pleased to be invited in the name of the Lord. I had the wife wanted me to keep the Sabbath at her house. So we met there at 11 AM. Besides [?] [?] [?], there were 5 men & 6 women present & 2 men were kept home by sickness & one man & his wife were out of town. Every body was so happy & the women seemed almost like sisters. They were not a bit shy. They listened well. There are about eight men tall & 4 or 5 women whom I think we can depend upon there are 4 or 5 who I'll give no doubt - but I hope you will are having a good study. I will when we get through I will leave for your being of [?] about the 15th & hope to get home about the 20th.
Now I am sending this by one of our [?]
& that is the [?]. It is one of our [?]
I hope the [?] of [?] will [?]

I am reading this letter of this man because I fear I shall not be able to read any more letters of the mail. There has been a little 亂起 up here & the people have risen up against the Magistrate, when they could not get him they flew in rage at the innocent post office & the postmaster escaped they destroyed every thing in the office, so I do not know whether they will be able to stamp letters or not & I do not know whether they will send carriers or not. So if you do not get any more letters you will know the reason why. If I can read them you will get them.
 The cause of the 亂起 was this the Rice merchants were storing up & sending out the rice & would not sell it here thus running up the price to an exorbitant price. They were warned & did not heed the warning so a few days ago the people rose up & stoned the houses of the rice merchants & caught a few of the men (most of them escaping) one man declared that the Magistrate was at the head of the business so they went for him but he escaped, then they went for the Post office. I understand that both the post master & the Magistrate are back again & the whole thing seems very quiet but enough trouble much talk. It is after all nothing serious except the destruction of the everything in the Post office, with trusting rather completely of this & there more. Now don't you think you will be doubt hear wonderful rumors don't you believe out of them for what you hear will not be true.

You will be able to send me mail right along, & I mean no odds to send you mail also but if I cannot - don't - you worry. For there is no danger at all now in the least; Besides I am in the Lord's hands & no power can come to me. This is the ^{most} pleasant trip I ever had yet; we are all so well; I hope you are keeping well. I am praying for you every day & I know that the Lord is with you & keeping you all in peace.

With much Love to You & the Children

My Darling Lottie

It is now 10 o'clock & we are just through with our morning prayers. I must snatch a few minutes to write to you. Am too busy to write much. I hear that Dr. McMillan is in town as will have to call on him & find out how ~~every~~ body is. for I hardly think he will call on me. I have been very busy since I came here. But - God has given me wonderful strength of body. I think there has been only one or two nights that I got to come in before midnight last night it was 2 o'clock. Two nights ago 1 1/2 P.M. It is so blessed to see the working power of the Lord in these people. The little youth (the same?) - (P.M.) I was interrupted & this is my first moment - A man came in with his bible in hand & wanted to read with me. I opened at Matt. 5:1. we read the beatitudes (or Lord's) & he first said what he thought it meant and then asked me if ~~was~~ he was right - what a delight - He had a wonderful grasp of the truth & showed that he was taught - of the Spirit. He is a man of 48 yrs but a child of the faith of only a month, I think I never knew a happier moment than to teach these who are hungering & thirsting after righteousness, then breakfast. Then some others came in & a little general talk. Then 3 1/2 of who had been with us for a week started again for 5 1/2 and before he went I read the Lord's Commission to the disciples and we all bowed in prayer. A dozen or more were women & several had children. It was a blessed season of prayer and we sent 1-3 1/2 of us on the wings of prayer. Then the rest of us began reading the bible & the door between our room & the kitchen - has always open so the women can hear all that is said. I said of the open door. & now

Their work is all done and they are four sitting about the door & sewing & the Landlady with her Bible reading to me & asking me questions. Chem is teaching the man whom I was sewing before breakfast & another Christian & teaching another singings & when we get through I find it is 2 1/2 P.M. with so little sleep & the work before me I must lie down so I take a ~~nap~~ nap while it is quiet. Up again it is nearly 5 P.M. But I must need over my chapel in about the 7th so I can need it smoothly to night. It is now after 5 o'clock & I am invited out to supper, so I must go at once and tho I can not tell you all I will send this unpurged so you may get it & know that I am well & now the Lord is blessing us.

I am feasting now on the fat of the land speaking of my babies. The brethren ~~are~~ are feeding me now & they are doing it joyfully I tell you. The now the brethren love each other & wish the brethren in women could reach & were one in spirit as there are & that the burden of Gods word hearts ~~is~~ is thus - halleluiahs to the Lord Halleluiahs to His Holy Name. The work is marvelous & I am so happy, I know you are praying for me, & I am for you also. I know he is with you.
The Dr. J. G. Hill proved to be a musician with much love & many pains for the babies hand - ye.

My Darling Dottie

Your good letter of Monday came yesterday. It made me very happy indeed. Tho' I am too busy to write I cannot tell you that I am well and very happy, because God is blessing the work here.

This morning was much like yesterday morning. One of the brethren came in from $\frac{1}{2}$ of 8 & see me. He is a Christian of only a few days but he says that three of them left last Sunday & went to know more about the work. It was one who left last night when I retired.

I am glad that we can go into Mr. Cole's house. I would like to come home at once but I shall try to be set by the spirit & not leave the work up here one day before I go because of the house repairs. I shall try to do the first duty first & that is now to work these people who are waiting for the Gospel. I wish you could hear some of the testimony of these Christians. I never heard the like nor saw the like in Boston. These people are crying the word in every direction. My joy knows no bounds. I wish you could see $\frac{1}{2}$ of the get after a man. He reminds me of Mr. Moody. This testimony is great & God is blessing his.

Now about the house, I feel it the thing to do, to go ahead as Mr. Gale said, I feel it is of the Lord. Therefore it might be well since you know where the grading is to be done, to order Eph H_o to get Coxies and have the grading done at once. Get just as many Coxies as can work as you have tools to work with & no more, but if this will add to your trouble & give you more anxiety, then don't do it, but wait till I get home. I thought if the grading is done it will be easier to make the contract with the Contractor when I get home at once, than if the bank is there, I don't think it will require much grading as the ground will not be far to carry. I would not have the bank entirely removed, i.e. do not remove it clear up to the path that goes from the upper house down to the well & 11th stairs. If there is a little bank & some trees between the path & what will be the Korman house or Annah's room & the boys waiting room it will be a splendid thing. But it shall not give you one bit of trouble, I hope we have gotten over this restless business, if it will worry you to do the grading, just let it be until I come home, which will be not later than March 23-24. As for getting the kitchen & gunny's & Korman rooms all done before it as it's come back is out of the question, so there will be one of two ways I think, either to move in as it is and have the work done while we are in it or to stay where we are & make Gale's go in until it's done & get back from the north.
That we will talk over & decide when I come home & can not think it proper for you more in my absence. & if we try to get anything done before we move in it will make it impossible for me to take my proposed trip to the north, I think when I get out & can get something on the go.

 and the house cleaned & yard fenced & things in some shape, perhaps you will like to move in before & leave day before the middle of spring. Then your thoughts we must leave some things at the upper house you will be settled & the out side work can go on while you are living in the house. Therefore I thought it might be well to get at the ground at once & when I get home we could put the Cigarettes at work at once, the more we have done before Mr. Hade gets back the less chance there will be for questioning, I wish we could get it all done, it would be so much better.

This is all for this time I am so glad that the work is good & that Wilbur & Christi-are doing well Christi's letters to her mother show me good, gives me much joy, I think she is best-governed by love & kindness, I am satisfied of this fact. She is never hurried & there is the key to her heart.

My God, give you grace, which I know He is doing, you are doing more than any other woman in heaven, much more than I am. I have had no minute to myself with the Bible in I come & hear He's.

But the Lord was giving me great blessings. I long for a few minutes to read his work. I praise him for this deliverance & the grace given me in this life. I mean write once more but that is all. Hope to see you soon I send my usual love to & say for you & the children. I commend you to Him who is able to keep you. praying for you constantly

Truly
 yours

My Dear Sallie

I have no time to write but simply tell you that - I am leaving for $10\frac{1}{2}$ this morning with a heart full of praise. The brethren here are all with me to send me off with their prayers after I reach Westport. We will read the last ch. of Luke & have prayer & then start. Yesterday was a glorious day. Of which I will tell you when I come home. We had 17 of the Gann Hays people who were trying to keep the Lord's Supper with us all day. I received 4 catechumens. But only 11. Others were examined but we thought best to let them wait a while till they know a little more.

precious. 3 women - to say the women are very busy & that there are 3 young women who are very way of the world & very good so they can read the bible for themselves.

They were blessed with a good one always.

Who ever know the joy of to talk with these simple minded people who with such grateful hearts are trying to live for Jesus I am so sorry that I have not written to the sooner I know I have no time but will do so any day for the future.

Give the children my love take a good night's sleep Love well.

Dear Father

I trust you would be glad to hear from me & the boys & I will write you as soon as I can.

The Reich is here on my back & may be I can send this by letter. We have very good news on this front. We are getting along nicely. Chalmers thought he would not get the oil, & now that we are nearly at our destination think we will have better from this on. Between the foreign road & the main road I can make out to get enough. A part of the weather & proper the Koreans. We were snowed in the first night did not leave Wonsan until Friday morning. I have severed good talks with the Koreans & believe I have done some good. The weather is nice I think we shall have a pleasant trip. I hope you will be kept well with children & that I shall be able to see you if you will & don't let anything worry you no matter what it is.

Tell Charlotte that Papa is thinking of her and wondering what she has read about today. That Jesus wants her to be good and obedient and Papa wants to hear that she is good all the time and Wilbur and Charlotte I know will help mama to keep house while Papa is gone.
They will try to make it as easy as can be for mama.

I forgot to mark the passages in John that the school boys are to commit. Susanna has them all marked in her book. If you just tell ma to give Kim Susanna's book he can mark them in a few minutes himself.

Hope you will be richly blessed tomorrow at the Church also. You might tell Song not to do too much talking himself but to get as many as possible to repeat the sermon. I think God will take care of everything if you are of your so I shall not worry Song beyond all. Will be we get to 21 of this P.

On steamer Chuyong,

My dear Sallie

We have reached here in safety.
arrived at 11 P.M. I have send the boys on shore to look up a room, when they find one 31 1/2 will come for me + I will go in "dry dock" for the next two months. 7월 12일 is right on the coast. I can see the city plainly from the steamer.
I do not think it a very large city.
we had a very quiet voyage. The weather had been sublime. I thought we were all glad to get on land.
There was large swells yesterday all day + though we lay in harbor nearly all day, I was nauseas all day and felt very mean. I tried to think of Jesus much of the time but felt too weak to read only a little. I feel quite well again + for us the sea is glassy calm.
I think I shall enjoy the trip back over land much more than by sea.
we tried to preach to the Koreans on board but there seemed to be a hard set who would not hear + I only sold a few books and threw to men who came on board at Kum-seung. 7월 12일 I am glad I can let you know by this boat that we are all well

My Dear Swallow

You do not need to be reminded, my dear old fellow, that a letter is wanted from you for the annual letter of '98, but I will go through the forms. The explosive "addendum" indicated a crisis in the letter's life apparently, but Ward says it is all happily passed. I am pleased to note, too, that the foreign fellows did five times their share last year, as a body, as you and I probably know.

I notice, too, that the dear old "Missionary Alliance" and the sacrifices to make it, got mixed up with some dilettante "donations to the Virginia Library" — what is the Virginia Library anyhow? — And has the time come when we stop giving to a dear cause — because it requires sacrifice.

I am sure all I have ever done for our beloved cause has been out of my poor-ty in the form of sacrifices. I am sure I do not need to warn you that I chafe no one to do as the "addendum" intimates. The voices of the foreign and home spheres in their old conflict were represented by, albeit somewhat good naturedly,

I wish you a blessed New Year, my dear old fellow, and one of great usefulness.

I must get all these letters of the same date

Sincerely,
as ever

Hyung Syung.

My dear Pannie

We arrived here Monday at 11 P.M. but I did not get off the ship until Tuesday morning. She was had a hard time to get away from here, and after that had the same my way was so rough, I had to get back to the boat to get me & the baggage. I almost thought I should have kept the ship's boat to wait off. - Then had you seen the leaving the boat I think you would never consent to have me go by ship again, but they loaded the old victual - so good some full price & then filled it up with dried fish, lettuce which my box and many other & a number of others piled on top. The staves were strong & well & thought - 물수업소 . So I was with me, but we did the best we could - I never want to go out again. Tuesday being yesterday were about ten short boys & was saw in the boat. It was almost more than I could do - you might have than I could do to encourage them & give them. They would a man - do anything report - than the ten first ship, whom you had said could not withstand. I will not repeat all by said - but there has been a little trouble up here & it is hard to get - rice. But now much the difficulty has been magnified I cannot tell.

To hear the Germans talk & almost get the taking the same steamer back. But God who is faithful 1st Cor. 1-9. came to my rescue and I decided to find him. Yesterday my boy went out and sold six books for 75 cash. I tried to encourage him with that + started out with him but the rain drove us back. H. H. Then I could hear nothing but - started - took all the time. I prayed + asked for some sign of his favor whatever he was pleased to give. I so wanted to feel his divine favor + thought surely if we could only sell some books it would indicate that God was not altogether displeased with us coming here. I so prayed for the guidance of the Lord. And at 7-10 and there my boy + I. and my maps started out with books. It was not long until they going at a good rate and after I was out about 2 hrs. I returned + gave them my bag + he went out with that full + some in his hand. Got at 2-00 P.M. they all come in and count up the cash. + the final sum is 1333 cash. more than I was sold at in any one day. My boy has gone out again + some are coming in to buy here now. We receiving not the slightest insult today. and I know that 'Jesus loves me'. How could I ask for more. He is enough for me. and I only want to see him. Him.
 This is a hard place but God is here + give us this city too + I believe he will. We are all well + very happy under his divine blessing. God is giving us plenty to eat too. I decided to keep Peter's maps until I get to Peter's Chry.
 He is - - - - -

I wanted to tell you now to feel that - you should call together Sam, El, El and Anna, and explain fully in a roundabout way how that - if they wished to do something for the Lord even though they could not give much more that - if they would just in the right spirit work a little harder so you could do without getting another servant, and you would give what you would have to give for another one to 4 1/2 1/4 to preach the Gospel, and they should feel and know that - they are supporting him - It is a fine chance for them and would do them much good & believe they will have a good representation in the field. I feel that - he is a safe choice, & praise the Lord for him - we know that - you are all praying for us & we are desiring for you every wish you always be satisfied for you at all times lovingly in love, with love you and the children.

My dear Dallis

I wrote you at length yesterday so I have nothing special to write you now. But since we had such a big book sale yesterday I think we shall buy some more. We sold in all yesterday between 200 & 300 books 1/2 yuan is worth. I do not know how they will sell here after but we may expect to sell many also at 갈루 & 韓. 전 before we get to Pook Chung. I wish, therefore, that you would have some pack up another oil case of books and send them by the Heineck when comes with.

Send me about one yard no of 郭家當道 and 張袁兩友相論 in Chinese also about half as many 德慧入門 in Chinese, also 18 Chinese Testaments the blue one in thin cloth. They are wrapped in sets of ten or five each in the book box, the rest in 언문. If Dr. Vinton has sent the books I ordered you will have plenty to draw from. If they have not come yet - do the best you can and see Dr. Mc Gill can help you out. If you have them send about 100 of the 성경분합 - not the little we give away kind. About 40 two friends, 장원양우상론 + 40 명가서전속 100 권구세진전 + some 구세론 If these have not come, you may fill the box with such as you in consultation with Song any deer ant or find at hand.

Don't send 북음은사 or 브츠헌분합 - box up and put my name on box 소교수 + address it to be sent to 박장용 at 신창. If the boat leaves before May 15 send it. If you cannot send it before that - don't send it.

73 187 is a rather dead place - especially now. It is not a large place so it does not seem to be the leading of the Lord for us to remain here long at this time. If there continue to be no more calls or inquiries we shall likely leave here by Sept 24 or 26, moving slowly south, stopping as we may be led at $\frac{1}{2}$ $\frac{1}{11}$ & $\frac{1}{17}$ $\frac{1}{11}$ so we ~~will~~ may get into $\frac{1}{4}$ of E. Illinois than I had expected, still we cannot tell what the Lord may have for us by that way. We are all well and I have a good in. We say happy indeed. With much love and many constant prayers for you & the children & the Grace & all the Church, at all times, saying Amen for you & the child. Tell Olive that papa will write her a letter as soon as he gets time, I know she is praying for papa and papa wants her to be good and kind. For Jesus loves good children. and so does papa.

Vision of Christ in the midst of the Churches.

7th of April 20 1898

My dear Sallie

We are still happy in the Lord and in the blessed hope. - I try to think every day He may come in ten. It is a blessed thought. We have sold a good many books. ~~But~~ and have some verbal testimony but with ^{no} seeming result.
still I know and feel that it is to God's glory and with the blessing of His dear Son, our Saviour.
We feel that our work at this time is now done here and will no longer be here, or - the work will be more burdensome tomorrow. It may take quite a while before we get to $\frac{1}{4}$ of the way may spend considerable time at $\frac{1}{2}$ of the way in the Lord may stand. It is so blessed to think of home, my dear loving wife and sweet babies, and I long so much to be with them, but what is in it is in it. I sit with enough to do and nothing to please my stomach, ~~but~~ it is at home in all our dearness we are still but pilgrims looking and longing for Jesus to be taken to our heavenly home. Blessed hope, sweet comfort. Cheering enough to take us through all the rough and unpleasant by the way.
It is pretty hard to utter a leaving while the people are crying for rice, it may be better next time we come, however I am sure our coming has not been in vain. For we have scattered my books hope we may do as well as $\frac{1}{2}$ of the way. I will not let you (now) until I get to the end, because I cannot see before your letters can reach me. I shall have them forwarded to me at $\frac{1}{4}$ of the way. They will be waiting for me there when I arrive, with other letters and news from you & wife.

I am praying for you every day & long is to have now you well. I presume the Calypso is nearly done & this time I hope you will not stay above but have another sleep in your house, until the present quarter is done, you will have lots to tell me no doubt; if you keep me informed about your things, I hope you may have your heart full of Jesus all the time that will make you soon sober than I. I long to see you. I look for a great outpouring of God's spirit upon the work in Worsan when the Rev. G. Comes preaches. I wonder what we preached is blossoming this year, I think it will be hard for me to stay home for flesh and stay out the three months, but God giving me grace I shall not think of the time but stay out till the work be sent me to do is done & then return, whether it be a long or short stay, we are all well & hope we may move & move as I know more of them than 31 $\frac{1}{2}$ and good teachers. My & out, and more of Christ's spirit in my own heart all the time.
God's love was a great help to me. This is the need of Dr. Knapp's gift be come. I should have had some more when I shall put the rest of it in my table.
The enclosed of $\frac{1}{4}$ you will send along with the note of the same for Mr. 10 and. You had better have your teacher copy off a copy for your own study. There are a remarkably large number of well-post-positions & care end up in this little paragraph, & it may be helpful to you though I think you know them all. Send it to Mr. W. W. Board 본홍분신 with much love & my name in your children.

My Dear Sallie.

We came in here Friday evening Apr. 28 Saturday we sold all the books we had left and could have sold many more had we had them. After we had sold all the 한문 books we still have a few Chinese but only a few. We cannot sell books unless we have 한문 every body wants 한문. However we did sell a surprisingly large number of Chinese this week after all the books sold and much talking on Saturday, there are none remaining to inquire in way of sale so we shall increase. We go next to 한천 across the sky towering mountains. I have already ordered you to send me one oil case & books & 신상 but instead of one send two.
If you have already sent one send another and write me at 북청. I think you can send it easily by either of the small Korean boats (Steamers) need not wait for the Hyeung, Send me what you care of the two Friends & the 구세론 & 구세진주 & 구세진진 & 인간귀도 as you now have. I think you will sell an hundred or more. Also send about 15 현도소유 (Chinese) and 10 more of the Chinese Testament those bound in blue thin cloth, which I got of Peter. I think there will probably not be any more 떡혜업부 & 장원량 & 우생론 (Chinese) left.

after you fill one box as I have previously ordered, but should there be still some left send also some more ~~of~~ of them in the second box, if you cannot find enough of the kind I have ordered put in some of those I have rejected, and we will get them of our hands.

God is blessing this work and ~~that~~ we shall someday see a line of churches, I think all along this three hundred miles to the other side.
Send box 2 to 박창영 at 신창 putting also my name 소공 on the box, at sending a letter to me at Pook Chyng, when the box goes.

We are all well. We have come over a rather barren tract of country from 7월 12일 down here. However we find 7월 20일 much fuller of life than we did 7월 12일. We had a very great Sunday yesterday. Held our own little services together at the usual time when you were all ~~and~~ remembered at the thousand of graces. I sometimes think if I could only do more, but I am doing all I can. But betwixt we shall see the fruits someday, others will if we don't. I don't Care only so Jesus is glorified. & God's will is being done.

The tears often come as I think of you and would like to be with you, but it only makes one think the more of our heavenly home where we are so soon to go, - of going to my Father's home is so dear to me. What must it be to realize the thought - that we are nearing - yea fast nearing our heavenly home where we shall be with Jesus forever. It is such a blessed privilege to be looking for his & waiting for all the time. It is truly a "Blessed Hope." I have devoured all the reading matter that I took with me & must wish I had taken more. I think you might tear off the first leaf of the Interior and send it to me and also the English & Korean Independent. I feel very lonely without them & it is so refreshing to get them. as I hope to be a long time at Pook Ching & at Huan Heng. I think you might send them to me. Beginning at once.
I have nothing special to tell you every thing is very quiet. I do not like Mr. Pieler's there & will not say it will send it down with the very water & get to Pook Ching.
With much love & many kisses for you and the babies & am still your love

My Dear Father

This Wednesday P.M. is quiet - The first I have had for a week. I am tired but I have just had a splendid rest and a good sleep. It is tiresome sitting Korean fashion all day long in a hard close room, and then too I scarce know whether it is tiredness or laziness. I think sometimes it is not that I am tired but simply lazy. However I am very happy because we have had such a grand time & have had a very rich week here in hearing testimony. We have been crowded with apparently earnest listeners every day thus far and a number today - today had seen a little slack! We have quite sold nearly 300 volumes without going out of our room. When we take the few books that remain we will have sold about 500 volumes. This is in entirely new territory where no mission had yet been. If we had had the books we could have sold many more. There are some hopeful inquiries here, but we cannot tell how they will turn out, as it is true conversion yet as we know of, the one that sold out today, is a good time to leave the villages as at here, he is a good person!

I like him very much. He has such a fine spirit; you need not count the time he works in the house I think him too useful to use in that way, besides I find that he is not so strong as his looks would indicate, and it would not be worth your while to twist your back to train him. He is a great comfort to us, and if the Lord wills it so I shall keep him by my side, as my help I think him worth much more to me than you. When Chun comes in very useful sometimes. Still I could do without Chun better than without - I $\frac{1}{2}$ of. He is a fine witness, and can get at such as sent by the Spirit if your servants are not able to do the works so that you can get along without a man to take Ma's place Cook out for another Cook and ~~and~~ indisrupt — Frid 4-30 P.M. I tried twice today to sleep, but was awakened each time by calls, some here nearly all the time, I wish I could sleep as easy as Chun can. But I praise the Lord for this privilege to testify to His Saving Grace.

still 650 or more see away. But we will soon be drawing nearer home. I thank the Lord every day for my good home, for my sweet good wife that - He gave to me, who first made me such a happy home that - I can hardly stay away from it; I often think how, before I was married, I was so long and so far from the home we now have with a dear loving wife and sweet-babies that are such treasures.

I am much to be with you, but the time is speeding rapidly and I will soon be home again. This always makes me think of our heavenly home where we long to be with Jesus and we shall be in the presence of God is keeping us in such excellent health. His "Caucasian" his word to be heard throughout this district; (you know this is the Tau Cham Circuit of our Huan Kung Station. It is not a vain hope that if the Lord spurs our road we shall see churches ~~at~~ dotted all over this fertile country between the great mountain peaks - namely the Cloud-towering Mountains & the Sky Tower Mountains.

It is a very rich country and there are many very wealthy people here. This is the section of one which the mountain side comes. There we also find the pine & stilled wood which in silver and wood carvers. In fact it is the first interesting section of the travellers. It is the first place I have found where one could get some real work. Curio & one day I did not take with me a little extra money. Perhaps it is well I did not take I should find myself spending more than I ought.
Since I cannot send this until I get to Rock Hill
I will say good night and write you again from Rock Hill, with much love and constant thoughts for you & the children & come and see to them all.
I will keep you. Look for Him, keep your eyes upon Him. Will

May 18 at Pook Choo, Came in today.

My Dear Sallie

I cannot tell you how glad I am to get all your letters today for I have not heard a word from you since I left home, until today. Notwithstanding all this I had great peace of mind and a kind of sweet certainty that that all was well. Because I knew that I was with you, how I have received letters of the following dates April 19 - 21 - 29 May 2nd - 5th - 9 - 11, I think I got all you sent so far, I cannot at once write many things you wrote but I will write about things that I think most important.

Your anxiety for me is greater - I fear than is mine to the Lord, Our love for each other is very great indeed, I remember you many times a day, I pray for you constantly. It is not that I enjoy being away from home that I stay so long
- I would go - but the Lord's work is so pressing just now & God has opened the door & it is for us to enter in -

Now I cannot tell you all I would like but I must tell you that the Good Lord visited me with a wonderful blessing of peace. I was inclined to worry & this thought came to me I know not how. but I know that He sent it; If there is any peace it must be of such sweet-peace & so it is. & our life here is to glorify Him & that is why He sent us. Then we should be happy only in the way that He leads, whether through suffering or ease of body, whether mental joy or fatigue; if there only so live that Christ may be all & have any thing in & through us. Then why should I worry for you I know that you are in Jesus arms, it would be very distrustful, would it not; were we to mistrust Him after He has done so much for us. & why should you worry for me - rather praise the Lord for this gift; and marvelous you to preach Christ to these people where He has not been named. I am not afraid of getting sick, for after I do all I can & keep well so that I shall fall off from my head against His will; and if it be His will, which is always gracious & blessed, that I should suffer sickness why should I lift my young voice in rebellion by His grace I hope to stand & preach His love, pardoning, saving grace while He gives me breath, while I thought of you much & have constantly the sweetest thoughts of my lovely home & dear family. He has given me such sweet peace - praise to His glorious name I have not been sick a day. Am getting plenty of good Korean food, and also when Peter's boy tells wonderful stories about the famine & things in the North remember its a Korean saying; I never had better health nor was felt better But now that I am here in Pook Chung it is like coming out of the woods into the civilized life so far as food is concerned because I especially like the tables here. I would like come home to see you just a little and return, but that would I through me.

out-into the rainy season, before I could get done all I want to do, I think however that I will get back before July, unless you were too strongly or get sick, I think I shall not return until the work is done as the Lord shall direct;
I want you to always keep me informed as to just how you are,
Am sorry you did not get the first letter I sent by the Ches. Jones, The two boxes of books you sent one I brought with me into Park City today as I came,
I sold all of the 800 volumes before I reached here & could have sold more,
I am glad for these two boxes, you have done just right with O. Donald & Feinwick. You are so wise in saying only a little, I am glad you got O. Donald to decide to wait;
As for little Sam $\frac{1}{2}$ $\frac{7}{8}$ of getting married I also think you did just right, I wish you could have him a day or two before he starts home & let Amah feed him so you may give him some strength just before he leaves.

You have given good counsel to the Church - better than I could have given, & also concerning his preaching.
 Now as for the cost of the outbuildings please don't let that worry you tho' the Ladies did write an after thought - & order us not to go over 100 yen.
 When they speak about it, - have no words or lengthy explanation, but ask them & please wait until I come home which will not be long. We wrote explicitly & was ordered to go ahead as we suggested, had we not been.
 So directed we should have simply gone down in the lower house where we would have had all that we asked for here, - I do think that Gals might ask 40 a month rent.

I wish you would not count upon 리기풍이 for a servant. I do not think it would be a wise move. It might be wiser for you to see whether little ~~한~~ ~~수~~ ~~풍~~ ~~이~~ would want to come and work for you after he returns from his home. But pray over it in your heart & leave it wholly to his own will. It seems it might be a good move.

I send Petros horse home with his boy, I was ordered to send it back to Wamsan for McMill to sell if I could not get 200 myag.
I could not begin to get that, & I would not give 150 myag for it my self. It is good for nothing - that is what I think of it. The boy will take it to Dr. McMill & should the Dr. not be at home the boy had better take it on to dead.
The boy will leave the Rope with you, you must ask it of him else he will forget it.

We here good news from Hain Wenny, I have met H. $\frac{9}{10}$ of here, But the ~~two~~ two who were so promising here have disappointed us considerably have not given up the faith, but are not conquering as they would were the impress of Christ upon them.
But it is all right in God's hands and the work will enlarge as God grants the Holy Spirit.

I am so glad you want to be filled with the Spirit so bad. Just believe & rest in it and look to Jesus in your work as well as in your study. It is when we get our eyes upon the world and things don't go as we like that Satan gets us. Turn your eyes from earth to heaven so that when he takes a dear little child from us we can say "Thy will be done, where when He takes one of us, Thy will be done, Oh, all glory only to His glorious name, He knows best, I want my life every moment to praise Him, I believe I shall never speak another ~~good~~ word to the children. I don't believe we need to. Let us see them all the time through Jesus, blind Jesus, who loves them even more than we do. Oh we ought to see every thing through Jesus. Then life has a different hue, a brighter radiance, a glory unknown to the world. For there is a striking emptiness in the thought

Of Christians enjoy this crossed earth. Think of it enjoy that which crucified our Lord.
We are happy in the Lord, a joy not to be compared with earth's joy, but how can we enjoy earthly enjoyments? It is a thought that will give you strength. Fear not for your life is hid with Christ in God, and that makes it safe forevermore.

Thank Olive for me. for that sweet little letter, Papa is so glad that Olive loves Jesus and reads her book every day, Papa thinks he has the dearest and sweetest little children in the world. I got also Sophie's letter & Emma's, I will write soon again. God bless you all,
It is all right from here home, & I will come home now any time & can write, & you can write me too. Love & kisses for you & babies. Love, will

P.S.

Pay the beaver (Beavers bay) ~~(four you)~~ (four you) $4.00

I have not the money to pay, and it will be O.K.,

P.S.

Thursday A.M. May 19.

I put in all the clothes I do not need. They are wet and hard to dry so I send them home,

I am glad you can get up at 5 o'clock, but please remember when you try to get up regularly at that time, you must also go to bed in good time, also take your sleep in day time, if you do not - you will break under the strain, listen & force yourself to take an after dinner nap with the children, & go to bed early quit wasting evening time & effort for nothing. Truly with I have here all I want.

P. D.

Dear Sall

Chun & Kipunil send their greeting to the Church - all the Christians. and Chun sends with the bag a nice screen & also one suit of old cloathes. I will also send any heavy suit - for I have no more use for it; I will send simply, the Chokeby & pugi, & one or two pair of hose.
I have ordered Dr. McGill to repay you the 16.80 you in case he sells the horse, if Dr. is not at home send the horse on to Seoul. & have so ordered & Mr. Peters will pay Dr. Vinto that amount. Read Dr. McGill's letter & send it over & him with the horse, & maps. W L Swadlow.

My Dear Sallie

I have been having a good rest since I came here. I am just ever so well. The hardest thing about this itineration is sitting on the floor & get the backache so I have to lie down & then I get so lazy & am good for nothing. I hope you will not work yourself up into such a worry any more about me. For I am alright when Christ is near. I am no nearer death's door when I am in the country than when I am at home. I shall not die until God calls me home, and when that time & that summons comes I hope you will raise no objection. God sent us here for a purpose & for that purpose I want to live. And if I do not I am dead the seeming to be alive. I take much comfort in Rom. V: 10. Reconciled by the death of his Son... Saved by his life. Here is reconciliation by his blood, then sanctified by his life which he promised to us as a gift. When his life is wrought in me, ^{my life is wrought} then I am made meet for the inheritance of life. V. 12. to glory alive.

Then I turn to Col. 3:3 & find one of the most precious passages in the Bible.
"For we are dead" - In what respect have I died? is a proper question to ask, and a worthy theme for meditation. Rom 6: 10, 11, and Gal 2: 20 will help to guide your thoughts aright on this theme. "and your life is hid with Christ in God." Here is the Christian's safety anchorage in the haven of rest, no storms can wrench him loose who is anchored here. No wild roaring billows dash against that rock. Satan can never more get at my soul that is hid with Christ in God. This is my comfort and my peace. It is my shelter in the time of a storm. Take a morning's reflection along this line with prayer and see whether you can not get your eyes off these things of the world that do vex and try your souls. I hope you will not forget that you are asking what God has not promised to give you, if you ask him to wake you up at 5 o'clock and then you work hard all day without taking a nap, and sit up until 10 & 11 in the night; get to bed early, say with the children 8 or not later 9, and then take a good sleep after dinner with the doors locked, and I am sure you will not only be able to get up and study your Bible two hours in the quiet fresh morning, but you will be fresh & sweet all the day long and accomplish far more in your Father's work than you ever did before & you will have a lovelier disposition & a better temper to control the children & they too as well as the servants will be happier - So may it be is my prayer, with myself included in all I have said above -

I am anxious to have something definite about the war. yet it is horrible to think of.
You will be glad to know that I am drawing nearer home. I expect now to be in France passing by the 1st or 2nd of June. There does not seem to be being much of a war here. The one who was so wonderfully converted as we thought - had not been able to stand. I have not seen him yet - which is an indication that he has fallen very much. He suffered considerable persecution according to his own testimony & then could not resist the temptation to go back to his Court of Concubine which he loved so much. I think there was his sin first probably & that is why he could not get strength to stand. There are two who come occasionally & seem especially interested that is all I can now say for South China.
God knows, & I have large hopes yet for this place in its future but there is no yet - little manifestation of the working of the Spirit: 기쁨이 & 자애를 가지고 we out-among the villages, I praise the Lord for 장오기 he is a strong man and I think lead of the Spirit; he is going like Paul with his trade from place to place preaching, selling books and making arrangements, I am so glad I could meet him here. The brethren at Hamdeung seem to be anxiously awaiting us so I think I shall soon leave not stay here more than about 10 or 12 days. I stay longer in Hamdeung where there is much to be done.

I am having good food & will not need the food I took with me, tho I eat kabal & sausage when I travel. I do not take pride in boasting of living on Korean food.
I only praise God that he enables me to do so. I do not say there is no danger, for I am in constant danger of all kinds of disease, from contagion, as well as from drinking of water. But I know that after I have taken what precaution I can do I will care for me until he calls me & himself. I do not worry for myself - nor for you at home. It would be a great joy to me to know that you were could receive this grace for it is a blessed gift.

I am anxiously awaiting the papers you sent with the books to H. G. I have sent after them but they have not come yet. 리 기쁨이 brought the boxes & knew nothing of the papers, & the $\frac{7}{11}$ of did not give him the papers so I do not know whether I will get them or not. I am anxious to hear something definite about the war.

You will have gotten the letters I sent with Peter's boy. He will ^{have} tell you how all our things got wet - but there is nothing ruined. My Bible was soaked by since I got it any it is all right.

This is beautiful weather & I would like to get a peep into our garden. wonder whether the young trees are blossoming.
Don't let anything worry you "dearly" if your heart is just kept full of Jesus all the time, you will love every body, and if Mrs G. or any body else says what ought not be said offer a silent prayer, & say nothing.
silence and the serenity of Holy Spirit's presence will calm any restless soul & quench the worst of darts. I long very much to see the sales. I hope they will be back soon.

I how I would like to see the dear little children. I think of them so much. Daus little Charlotte no doubt is getting to be quite a help to her mama, and is able to care for Wilbur without the mamma. I know she wants to be good, and kind, for Jesus loves such children.
And Wilbur dear boy I think mamma had better give him up now and put on pantaloons - then he'll be mamma's boy no more but papa's little man.

I imagine I can see ^{Sweet} little Gertrude she will be a great pet when I get home,
'spect she won't know her papa, but papa will know her - Sweet darling. And I would like to see my darling Dolbe too. I only hope God will give you grace to bear up with patient till I come. - only the mere act, get fidgety type, of waiting for Jesus - yes till He comes - then O what a joy!

What a blessed hope. Deal kindly, yet firmly with the children, all rebuke & punishment that is given in temper is worse than none. Love & might & a love rebuke is not without effect; blind punishment is effectless.
Let us look at our children through Jesus.

with love & many hugs & kisses for you and the children as well as constant prayers for you all. Lovey Will

Mr. Hans Henry,

My Dear Sallie

I came in here last night: I have been fasting & praying & writing The part of prayer has done me much good. The Lord is so precious. The Dear young brethren have been tried & stood well. God has sent us to their rescue & Satan has again been defeated. The situation looked truly dark yet the Christians were so happy saying all the time no matter, we'll stand it. I expected a hard battle & have consecrated myself as I never have before, because I felt I must stand by them. They were ordered to leave the magazine - all Christians but they did not go, then they were given 10 days to get out; but still they did not go & were called before the Elders of the city and ate lots of yoke & were given 10 more days grace, but the church, that if they did not go the doors of this house would be torn off and it would be impossible for them to live here

I have written you much which I need not send because after looking into the matter and got a copy of the Edict sent from the Law Office in soul, we find that it is not at all as the Elders reported but one of the best Edicts I ever saw It is worth every thing that the Church has,
There is now no need of worry, The Edict affects only those who are called who commit all manner of evil under the name of Christ's ministry on this earth
It was a trick of Satan to try to scratch in the Church's praise & he did not get away the he has brought to light the weakness of one or two. The report has been judged good

I received your letter in which you enclosed H's letter, also rec'd May 19th + 23^d. Hope you will not worry over these things look to Jesus, I thought I would not get home for a long time but I guess I will get home by the middle of June after all. The Lord has brought us here just at the right time, I think since we got the order from the board not to have a teacher after 5 years, you had better give up now. Be plain & tell him why, so he will understand I think we can keep Chun & you can have him all you want.

I am so well that I have such a nice place the nicest room in town. I am so at home here, just like one of the family I boil all the water I drink & so don't pay for that - I am paying for my meals the time but they are royal.

I will love well, I am not so far away from home but you can let me know if you want me suddenly.
The work is so blessedly hopefully here I rejoice that our plans are being carried and I feel more sure than ever that we shall get to know I am glad you let Fenwick buy the pony I will want it if it is a good one.

Love to you all in love

Ham Henry

Dear Mrs. Fry.

A new term of reproach has been given to the ~~Christ~~ believers in June at Ham Henry, ^{secretly} ~~not~~ less beautifully significant than the one ^{first} given to the believers at Antioch & which all believers have retained ever since.

When the people see a Christian coming ^{along} ~~the street~~, among the many vile epithets which the Christians ^{cannot} ~~endure~~ for Jesus sake, is one they love to hear because of its deep significance. They say "Jesus is coming" or "Jesus has come" or "Jesus is passing by" ~~O if only Jesus would be passing by~~

O if only Jesus could always be thus recognized in every one who bears His name how soon would that blessed name be in the mouth (if not in the heart) of every human creature in the world.

It is a rare ^{- 3rd, a sacred} privilege that I now enjoy to stand by these young Christians through this persecution. ~~A great effort is being made to ^{suppress} ~~drive out~~ the Christians~~ they had been ordered to leave but the magistracy

~~on the ground of their being Christians.~~ ~~They did not leave, when they were called~~ ~~and four days were given to sell their~~ ~~houses and leave.~~ ~~It is humbly in His name~~

Please send the above note to Mrs.
Fry. It is a beautiful testimony & know she will be pleased to hear it. I want to write to Dr. Johnson when I can. It is so hot & I can scarcely do anything. The heat is thing wonderful. For heat & drouth. God has guided me here for this time I must stand by the Christians now I will come home when I feel it is right for me to leave. I am perfectly well in the very best condition. I can where I can take care of my self. I boil the water & sometimes drink tea & coffee.
Keep me well informed & I would have you enjoy the same blessed peace that is mine. It is a most blessed privilege to be here at this time. Lovingly in haste.

Dear Sallie

Look in my private drawer for my American passport and Envelope; it with what I have written to Dr. Underwood & send to Dr. Underwood at Igou. If you read his letter you will see what is wanted. There is no more in this I still have your passport which is a good one only it does not protect me in any preaching as I would like. And this point is the important to desire now at any cost. I know you are praying every day for us & God is with us we are happy & well.

I praise God for this glorious privilege & wish you could be here with me. You will by & by when we get things in better shape. Keep much in silent prayer & ask God, believing to give you peace. I have such sweet peace lovingly with. See over

My Darling Sallie,

I know you must be getting awfully tired. You are a brave woman to stand by the staff so long. But I am praying for you & the children all the time & the time will soon be here now for me to return. You will be counting the days now no doubt. I am anyway! I think I shall have to be counting my money to tho' its not much to count. I think you can expect me by the 15th of June if nothing unforeseen takes place to prevent me. It does seem as though so many things take place when I am away. But, just so they do not worry you. After we have done all we can to teach these people we must commit them to God. And not worry over their weaknesses. I am glad for little 복향 (M'boy.) He is gone to be with Jesus & may be a means to lead his parents nearer to Christ. From all you say there are still a number in the Woman Church who do not like to do as their teachers has taught - their stubborn will, unsundered will,

The very thing God hates, I think God hates a stubborn will more than any thing else for it is at the bottom of every action. A proud heart & a stubborn will God hates, But God knows who are his. & we need not worry. I am sorry for the Wahodog 7/25 but - by God's grace may they say. "thy will be done". I wish you could have more frequent talks with 2/11 7/3 of I am sure you have much more influence over him than I have. and do not be afraid to speak just what you think he ought to be told. I think I would say nothing against the girl, but would tell him he had better not make it binding until he consulted with his spiritual teacher, and especially 3/1 2/6 of to whom his father committed him: Do nothing that is not strictly honorable If you think he has an desire to come and work for you, it might be well to engage him. providing he is free to do as he please, but he must first leave his job if he does not first leave Kang if will block it; and you will have engaged if and not get 2/11 7/3 of either. If he wants to to work for you he had better go home first - after loosing himself from G. Then come back & come direct to you. Be careful lest you simply get yourself in a muddle. Why, because no Korean can keep his word. I still think about the safest play is to keep clear out of it. I leave him in the Lord's hands.

We had a blessed day yesterday. It looks a little like like real worship here when they all meet together. I think there were some 18 here Sunday. And we had two meetings besides morning prayers at which all were present & also an afternoon Bible conf conversation, & stories. They sing & take up collection. Have nearly 20 Myang in the collection. I am very happy here with them. There is no going back on Hamo Myang now. This is ~~too~~ too busy a time to do the best work. But I look forward to next autumn & winter & as a rich year here. We are not afraid of the persecutions but is only helping & give the children strength

Showing who are real & who are not genuine.

I wish if it is not too much trouble for you to have some pack another oil case of books & send to the ship's agent in 什貨. The part to Hainan being. Put in 5 Chinese 신약 12 Chinese 什貨소유권 20 什貨의 부분 Chinese if you have them & 인가 권도 & 장원영 옥상권 in Chinese if you have them also the two books in 什貨 and 什貨, and a general receipt as you think. Have some note the ~~own~~ number of each sent. Have them pack the light red address in Chinese to 신창희 함흥 남문 밖 도리 읍 거리 신창희 什 And write to 신 here in Hainan Hong So he may know when the box will come. (I may be gone before you send the box so write 신) If it gives you trouble to send the box never mind & I will send it when I get home. I received yours of 17. yesterday of 19th Saturday the 17th. I was a long time coming from 什貨 & that is why you got so few letters. But we had a blessed time. Hope Sals will soon be on hand. Keep me informed I can come home any time now if need be. With much love to you the children. & sympathy for the suffering Church & will. We are all well. very well. will.

May 30 - noon.

Dear Sallie

Your very touching letters of 26 and also happy one of 27, came just now. It is pretty hard to resist - those loving appeals to come home. I assure you I could not stand it - not to ~~be~~ start at once were it not that I am under the Lord's commands, & I must stand by my "High Commission" I would almost be tempted to start at once but for your last letter seems to give your last will & testament which is to stay till my work is done. I praise the Lord for those confessions & expressions of a purpose to go with me into Hamm Hearing. - We'll be here soon I hope. Now we are not a little anxious to know what has become of Peters & those as he had particular instructions to go to you & to sell his horse in Worsam, or to leave it for Dr. McLeod to sell. Something must be wrong or he would have been there before this. He ought to have been to Seoul by today (Jan 30) If you have not heard or seen any thing of him yet - Send the following telegram to Seoul

When the answer comes return to me at once. Of course if you see him this telegram need not be sent;

Bro. Henry's letter did me much good he wrote just the letter I have so long been wanting. Your letters do me much good. They are a great support. I hope to be with you soon before long two weeks will soon fly by & then we shall both be happy because I have stayed till my work was finished.

Hann Herring June 1. 98

My Dear Sallie

I was expecting a letter from you today but as it has not come yet I will not delay this letter because of that. We are all well. I have been terribly bothered today with the pesky flies. I am not seeing very many callers here now. I don't think I shall stay until July, unless something unforeseen turns up to keep me. I think you will see me by June 15. There seems to be a determined effort to the Gospel here just now. But nothing more than we would naturally expect. If these Christians are only born again the persecution will all turn out to God's glory & the spread of the Gospel. But you know it is hard for a Korean even tho he be a Christian, to be prudent. I shall do what I can to teach them to look to Jesus & trust in Him, to witness testify & not to try to preach philosophy which I am afraid some have been trying to do, & aroused more or less suspicion through their ~~st~~ ignorance.

I have nothing especial to write you, but knowing that you will be pleased to hear from me, I send this note. We are having cool weather now, The river here has been dry for some time they hold the market in the river did now believing that by so doing they shall soon see rain. It is very dry, if it does not soon rain there will be a famine.

I am getting a little sitting on the floor without backing, and it makes me awfully lazy to be lying down so much. But there is no other way for it. we must lie down when we are in Korean houses, I think I shall enjoy a good rest when I return. If our absence from one another will tend to make us love & appreciate each other more very good. I assure you I have been thinking some very sweet thoughts about you during my absence & as anxious to get back to my wife & babies as you are to see me.

Wils.

My Dear Sallie

Yours with the P. Y. & Kai Gu letters received. It is so blessed to get letters from home. I don't know what I would do were it not for you. I praise the Lord for His grace to you & me. I am glad to hear that He is giving you the victory. You will always be victorious if you only lean on Him all the time.

My first thoughts this morning. I put in my diary. I will now write them to you as I think they will help you. They are the following

We should ever remember that we are constantly in Jesus' company, in His very divine presence. To have Him ever visaged before us & to see every thing through Him is wonderfully glorious.

Nothing can give us so much peace nothing can make us so careful; not only of our ways; but also of our very thoughts. If we are soon to go and be with Jesus in blissful thought & be with Him forever, why should it not be the delight of our souls to enjoy His divine presence while here in this sin cursed world, where every thing is so marred with Satan's filthy slime. If Jesus will be ~~our~~ or it to be our supreme delight - in the glorious portals of Heaven, why should He not be thought of and appreciated as our supreme & constant joy & delight while treading this vale of tears.

Oh how little we take of the wonderful provisions of Grace so freely offered us.

I won't promise but I am likely to be at home by the 15 or 18th of January.

I don't think we are especially needed here now Satan has been baffled in his fool trick to exterminate the Christians.

The order to leave did not come from the Governor as reported but it came from the head man of the precinct - who thought he with all the elders could intimidate & suppress the Gospel. It was in every body's mouth that the Governor had ordered the Christians to leave. We worked assiduously to get all the facts & finally we got from the head man a statement in Chinese saying that the Governor ^{Government} had ordered the Christians out.

We also got in a quiet way the Edict as issued from the Seoul, which is a splendid document and just what we want. It does not forbid Christianity but orders the punishment of those doing wickedness under cover or under the name of Christianity. We are very glad of this. The edict speaks a good word for Christianity. Well after getting all the evidence, I went ^{straight-} for the Governor. I had made a social call on him before & was treated most politely. Even the he is of the old school. The Governor is a perfect gentleman. I simply laid the matter before him and handed him what the head man had written also gave him a statement of the case, ^{as} I had stated it in Chinese so he could read it.
He was very much surprised to learn of such business & thanked me for informing him, & said that he would stop that business at once, that he had given no such order, the man was responsible for it. I said that the Christians should not

I don't it can be said that - I was giving too much aid, I do not believe in meddling with the politics & think P. V. stands right in standing against Underwood on that point.

But - here was such a devilish net and all together out of all law. & feeling that it would not be right to subject the young Christian to all the possible difficulties that might follow such a proceeding when once begun. I believe I was led of the Spirit to step in with a gentle hand & nip off the head before it shook the body very much.
 I must stay a little while probably next week yet. & see how every thing goes on then I will move toward my darling love, who has been so brave & has stood it so well. I think our great victory has been won & I praise the Lord. We are all well. Kisses & love to you & the babies. Will.

My dear Sallie

This has been a very busy and very blessed day. The Lord is very good to me. I am just-beginning to trust-Him & just-feel I shall never be so faithless any more. It just seems impossible that anything could be done here the people seem so hard & cold. But I know that God is sufficient for all these things. I cant tell you what sweet-peace is growing up on me. O for the Faith to take God at His word. I am beginning to feel awfully ashamed of my sins & unbelief. But I praise God from my heart he is showing me Jesus and I have never seen Him before. I have had the sweetest mind, and the humblest mind today I think I ever experienced, tho I have such deep sense of my utter unworthiness. I believe & know God is going to give me the kind of mind He wants me to have. I shall be satisfied with nothing less than His own things being done. Dear Sallie I sensibly conscious of a peace & restfulness I never knew before. O that I might hid myself, so that God would hid me of this sinful flesh. I know he will -- why should I hope, I know it; I will take Him at His word. O I am as a child learning to walk as I try to read my Bible in faith - I stagger & fall, but He instantly lifts me up - I will, by His Grace, take God at His word. I have had some power in testimony today, some lialined with apparent interest. O that God might take mercy upon these poor people and move some souls to accept Christ so the Devils strong hold might be broken. God knows His ways they are always wise & merciful. I believe God will be glorified in this trip any way whether we see many souls turning to Him or not. I praise Him for His glorious presence, and I know

He is being consciously near you too. I hope you are receiving the rich blessing that I am I am keeply in excellent health & there is nothing I want but the power of the Holy Spirit and souls for my master.
I hope you are all well I am looking for a letter every day now have not received any from you yet.

Yesterday I called on the Magistrate
There was not much interest, but I I believe it proper for me to show myself friendly, I then called upon the Army Officers here & was nicely received I was granted permission to see the Boys drill, a Cadet was sent for this morning & I went to see the drill It was very interesting indeed and the young Officer has done good work in the short time he has drilled the boys.

More soon love & kisses for you all.

God by Sincerely, W. P.

Dear Sallie

I cannot understand why there is no letter reaching me. It is now ten days since I left home and I ought to have heard from you before this. This is my third letter to you. It is Sat. Evening, and I will only write that I am well. We are not seeing very many but I get to do some leafing every day. I have a good place to stay & every body knows I am here. When they do not come to me, I go out and then I get to see enough to talk me to sleep. We have had the most delightful weather. It is beginning to rain this way, the first since I left home. This is a pleasant time to be in the country. We will stay here a few days longer & then go to $\frac{1}{2}$ of it. I hope I get a letter before I leave here & trust you are all well. I would surely fear of it if you were not. I pray for you very very lovingly at my times. well

Pook Chung.

Sept: 12 - 1898.

Dear Sallie

Yours of 3rd inst. gratefully rec'd last night - as I was about to return, Glad to know that Gertrude is better & your anxieties relieved, I expected to start for $\frac{1}{2}$ at tomorrow morning but as it is raining this evening I do not know whether I will get off or not, I will probably be able to write you from $\frac{1}{2}$. We are well & I have been feasting on good things for my soul. I have read all the tracts you sent me last spring, & have almost-completed Heros' Church History all of which has done me so much good, I have been greatly blessed by reading those tracts, that greatest of all blessings, that blessed life is coming, I feel I can all but say it is mine, - I hardly know why I refrain from saying it is mine! It just seems there must be something I have not yet given up that - must be given up, & God is causing me to search my heart. God know I want to live for Him & by His grace hereafter I will, & that I might - be His in such Complete Surrender & confident-faith as to be absorbed by Him?

this is my prayer from my heart as near as I know it; Am I willing to be nothing that Christ may be every thing? Am I willing to trust-Him & keep & use me for His own glory?
Willing to trust-Him to keep me from sin & the power of sin? Can I trust Him & take Him at His word to rule in my heart?
Surely He can and will if I only can trust-Him. O that God will give me this faith & that-right-quickly.
I know There is the Blessed life with Christ in God to be lived here on earth that-is what I want;
I cannot be satisfied with anything less, than a sanctified, consecrated devoted life to God. I ought not to wish this for aught else than for the glory of God, Surely with God about me and Christ within me I must be insuberbly happy all the time, nor could anything on earth disturb that-peace, that & that alone can give victory over the world the flesh & the devil. Praise God this is not of us but of Him who bought us with his own precious blood, I surely will.

My Darling Pally

I came in here on the wings of peace and mercy, great has been the blessing that is mine. I praise God for that which He has enabled me to share of His Divine goodness. I have denied me & never have before to believe His word and His promise at His word, God keeping me, I cannot do this save by His grace. But I have His promise that He will give grace to the humble and I have been given grace to surrender all to Him. in a sense as I have never before, I promised God by His Grace never again to distrust Him, or allow the Devil to tempt me with the thought that I did not have the Holy Spirit. He is mine, I have taken God for His word, I have received the promise & He is my personal Companion, teacher, guide, superintendent, and my peace & power I can now only do what He gives me power to do. I dare no more think of self, or my wicked self, what a disgrace I have been to God, & the name of my Lord. I have been to serve Him while all the while serving self. My only desire now is to live for God & to glorify Christ. I have the promise also to be kept from the power of sin, can I believe it? It has always been our disbelief that has kept us back, I know He can and will, at any rate the Lord shall be responsible for what I am & do since He sent I is to have the glory. Our hearts have been a little yet greatly cheered on being with Park Chung, since God detained us there two days so that we might see and comfort Mr. & Mrs. Chung, who had fallen a prey to the Devil. It was such a blessed privilege to be able to help him out of the "slough of despond" into which he had fallen. We now have new hopes of his recovery in the power of God. For I take it as a direct retention of the Lord that we could not get off when we decided. The first day it rained, the next day it was not feeling very well & decided not to go. Soon Mr. G. came in he had been away from home & came just as soon as he learned of our presence in the city. We left for the morning of the 15th. Up to that time I had only gotten one letter from you, which was written up 8th. I requested the post master to forward any letters that might come to Haverhill, where I expect to reach on Sept. 23, and will find some letters waiting on them. The carriers seem to be very tardy. I am well and now among Christians. It was a new kind of blessing to be greeted by two new Christians whom I had never seen. I will needs no stronger proof for the truth and power of Christ-ianity ~~is~~ found in a living Christian man. Chas. Sabney has done good work & the stamp of God's approval is upon his work. There men, and as many women and a boy are the result of his labors here beside a number of others who have heard much and are listening to the Gospel.

I had a room full last night and a very blessed meeting.
My time were not limited no doubt I should stay here several weeks, but I cannot now. But hope soon to get back again. I am praying for you & know that you are trusting God for all. He will be your support. Don't be discouraged with the girls if you only have one, I think you might send him some money if he is still sick.
Help the poor. Our money is not ours. If you can do not hesitate to contribute to meet his need. ~~don't be~~ ~~difficult~~

Dear Dallis,

Yesterday was a beautiful day I hope you have had a good day. I have been looking round a little, and find we can be comfortable enough for a while in the quarters they have set aside for us until we can get into Squire's new house. As soon the material comes half the cost and about half the material is at hand So if we are willing to forward money to, we will get in by July 1st.
before the day of seasons

So I am counting on my Saturday letter bushing your mind and I will arrange for planting the trees, I will make garden before I start for you. I will be glad when you and the children will be here This is the finest Community I ever was in You will enjoy the spirit and Sunday services, I hope you will be able to do some studying, you will have the chance to reach all the women you wish. Mrs. Pease wants you to take her work and you will be secured with your own, which I wish

+ send your work
W.H.D., By your, and consigned to F.H. Morse Chambers, and he will send it up here as we shall order him.

I hope you will send me the checks as ordered in Saturday's letter.

The class work is inspiring and this state is most like a bee hive I think.

I am well and very well care of you, have a good room, & good board & the boys here are doing all my workings. So you have nothing to fear for me when Lee & I go to the Country Lee will take enough food for both of us & a boy to cook it. Then I can have here a foreign food just as I like, write me fully how you get on.
I wish you were here. Dear inpatient, for a while, Mrs. [?] Coche's wife is a Sunday of the women here. We have [?] I am to preach next Sunday in [?] I also preach both even in the City [?]

a great blessing came true Sept 4. and all along up to 15 was one great outpouring of the Spirit causing heart-weeping & repentance & more entirely complete renunciation to God, & a pledge to seek that - ten of them & would take God at His word & never doubt in the presence & guidance of the Holy Spirit God helping me & accomplishing in me this very thing. I also was given grace to believe this without feeling heart-ache & always wanted some feeling & have learned to take God at His word & receive the Holy Spirit's infilling without feeling nervous that I am not God's & that some shall see. & His own glory.
This is my gift. & I have been given much comfort & power since then & all the letters I wrote you from Park Chan has ~~stopped~~ been switched of the track & I find it hard to get start of it again, with this one.
At $\frac{2}{3}$ $\frac{2}{1}$ we found a little company of Christians. It was so blessed to meet with them. There are a few chosen there & I think when we was going to start for Hainan. We could not go no faring to be had. I said it is of the Lord so I went to the harbor just in time to catch a boat.
The little white steamer that was going.

concern, intending to go to 19 1/2 the port of Hamberg. We went on board, but found the steamer would not go to 19 1/2 but direct to Wouda.
I did not think God wanted me to go so I went on shore again.
That night we had a marvelous meeting & I had the privilege to witness to the leading men of the city. Next morning another Sunday I stayed & a few took books & I look for results. I am sure God had that work for me to do. Then came a pony & I started for Hamberg.
Should you get a back set. Send for me at once. I do hope you will be careful and keep on the safe side.
I see the hand of God in it all. You & I together will be prepared to visit the Lord & to learn on His. Praise His Holy Name. I am sorry you could not be here from me more frequently. But the mail carriers are very slow & Post Masters careless, Hope you got the letter & sent from improving. I commit you to God who is caring for you. Kisses & love to you all in Jesus Name. Sincerely

June, 7, 1879 - Saturday night?

Dear Sallie

There is so much to tell you and so little time to write you. Every body seems so happy here, and treat me so kindly. It seems like heaven itself. Surely the most nearly heavenly of any community I have ever been in. I wish you were here, I wish we were all here and settled. I don't know tho' where that will be, but we will have to leave that too with the Lord. This is a very strange mission community, I don't like it, and I believe we will fall in with them on most things. Gracette will be married to Dr. Fish just as soon as the arrangements can be made. as soon as they send you home I believe. so hurry it is hard at it getting up a house for mission. forwarding the money and expecting to get it later. Timbers and most every thing is ready for Brink's house and the two will be put up together. All the money for lumber &c. was forwarded for Brink's house. It has been the intention of the missionaries here to chip in together to get money to build so they did not need to wait on the Board and in that way that this house was done by the

Since the appropriations arrived, we will be ~~not~~ ^{new} uncomfortably situated until we get into Peirce's house, but we must pray for grace to bear it. You know we were expecting to go into the girls' building where Peirce's are now living, but the people here seem to think the house is too small for such a large family as ours seeing that Miss West is also to live in the house. The house has only four small rooms beside the kitchen. I feel like they do that we should not be able to live ^{separately} there & board Miss West.
They thought Mrs. Hunt's should go in there, being only two, and we should go in the house they believe, it is the one Mr. & Mrs. Lee & Mrs. Well, first-lived and boarded well ^{in my first} & ~~with~~ ⁱⁿ ~~the~~ ^{the} house - There are here four small rooms and a kitchen. I think we can live here for a while, the only trouble is with the children and I guess we can ^{and can manage} ~~manage~~ ^{manage} them in some way. But it is our interests to get Peirce's house going early. Every thing is ready to go on in the early spring, but the stone and as it takes so long to get them here Moffett wants us to get them now so we could go on with both houses in the spring. The stone station man all about broke having you wanted so much money then - I said I would let him have 140 so we would ~~not~~ ^{get} ~~be~~ in the new house so much earlier.

We will get it back where the new appropriation is made. For houses we must have and there are none here & rent;

As for the bringing over of the trees. I would say there is plenty of ground here & he had and I guess with your permission I will buy a nice sight - as high as any and where I can get nice fields adjoining to make our compound as big as we wish and orchard & garden as much as we wish. It is what all the members of the Station are wanting to buy for the Station for future use, but have not the money now to buy it. Moffat and all want me to buy it In doing so I would do just as all the rest have done. Moffat has a good many fields. See near some Hind. Whether I should have each bought and to the station has nice grounds. If I get this it joins the other & would become my gift - when we build which would most likely be done while we are at home in America. This land will cost 150 yens and if I buy enough to connect it with the station ground I might need 250 yens but in that case I would have several acres and most excellent for orchard & garden
When you come we can decide for sight.
What I would especially request of you is that if you get the boat make me willing to have and then forward the money - It most certainly think we must; then do not show real money. I have no we decided to do but write to Dr. J. J. to get it.

send me the whole of ~~the~~ ~~envelope~~, put it in ~~the~~ ~~envelope~~ back, it is not like in Seoul, we will have to get ~~the~~ ~~money~~ ~~back~~ ~~this~~ ~~year~~, and will ~~get~~ ~~our~~ ~~money~~ ~~back~~ ~~next~~ ~~year~~.
I asked Lee when he could get the house done if we waited for the money until the appropriations went to ~~the~~ ~~bank~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~bank~~.
He said, ~~he~~ ~~could~~ ~~not~~ ~~get~~ ~~it~~ ~~done~~ ~~until~~ ~~the~~ ~~next~~ ~~year~~.

even in a cloudy, & the weather is - last night I sat the prayer meeting in the city church, - with prayer meeting by the natives, I was much impressed in all my life - I do not in my mind but - some have been with spirit manifested.

But I hope part - tell you all. I hope the Lord will send it to you with me soon there soon, This is a miraculous work of the Holy Spirit, truly will.

I sent a letter you - today. I hope you would be anxious to see. But I am so well & happy I wish you all in, I wish that you is to and with some teaching for people about you.

Send seed when you get them & give direction for planting.

I used Hank's letters because it wrote well on wet paper.

I had a talk with my boy this morning and he 3/4 of said that it would not hurt his mind to care for the horse but was afraid the horse might kick. He said he saw did it - what would you do if? Is it think I would not give the money for it will make the trip too awful expensive to hire an extra man. I was so thankful to see such a willing mind I believe he is thoroughly converted. He is certainly very humble. I have more & more hope of the Lord than him. He said how thankful he was that he could now have some time to study with me. I hope you will all well & that you may daily keep your eyes upon Jesus. I am just reading Gordon's dream or his interpretation. I believe it is a good sent-message just at this time. I am sure it has helped me much already. There are so many things we would not do if we had an end that you is standing by and so many things we should do differently if we were to remain here. It is just what the life hid with God in Christ means. Not only is Christ in the Church but with us all the time, in our home & in our works and by us all the time. This was me much pleased to think of him with me in my home while I am absent & should I forget you as it does me to know that he is by me in all my travels and work. This is a sweet and comforting thought just when he said "if I go I will send the Holy Spirit into you." I love the Lord for his revelation.

The boat may not go out for several days & I may get to write again, & I may miss my chance so you may not get this one. I don't know how long I shall stay here so don't worry if you don't get answers to all your letters. I believe the Lord has made it so we shall be quite independent to go where & when we please & I want only to know His will and go or stay just as I understand Him to lead. I ask only that He lead & give me faith & trust & courage & do as He directs. I thank Him dear for a praying & working wife at home it is a great & very blessing and especially that you can bear all the trials and sorrows which my sin bring upon you, without a murmur and never think so cheaply. Praise His Holy Name I send you greeting in Rom. 5-10. Reconciled by His death. saved by His life. - glorious thought - It is Christ living in us that sanctifies & saves
- lives in us through the Holy Spirit. I never thought of this until I read it yesterday. That passage is worth much meditation. - I pray It bless you much next year for your work with love & many kisses for you & the children lovingly Will

William Leander Swallen, graduated from Ada Normal School (Ohio Northern University), Ada, Ohio, 1883; Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio, May 1899; McCormick Theological Seminary, May 1892. In 1912 Wooster College conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

In 1892 Dr. Swallen went to Korea as a missionary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. The first years were spent in Seoul, and later he was stationed briefly in Wonsan, but for about forty years he lived and worked in Pyeng Yang, in the part of the country now known as North Korea. Many of the large churches that flourished in the area before the Korean war were a direct result of his evangelistic work.

Dr. Swallen translated and wrote in Korean more than 20 books on Old Testament and church history, Christian Ethics, the life of Christ and commentaries on a number of the books of the Bible. For many years he was one of the professors in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Pyeng Yang. Many years ago Dr. Swallen developed a Bible Correspondence Course which has enrolled thousands of Korean Christians through the years. This was the course so effectively used by his son-in-law, Chaplain Harold Voelkel, with the newly converted prisoners-of-war in south Korea. The crowning work of his service in Korea, completed there after his retirement, was the Korean text of an advanced Bible Correspondence Course.

Dr. Swallen was decorated by the Japanese government for bringing the first American apple trees into Korea. From the first two orchards which he planted near his home in Wonsan and later in Pyeng Yang, local farmers secured plants for their own use, and laid the foundation for the extensive apple culture which later developed throughout Korea, and resulted in shipping thousands of tons to Japan, Manchuria and China.

Because of the strained relationship between Japan and the United States, Dr. Swallen had to leave Korea in November 1940. After returning to the United States, he retired in St. Petersburg, Florida and remained there until his death.

Chemulpo, Korea - August 19, 1897

My dear Sister,

While we are waiting here I will write you. We left home Sat. night after a lot of hard work. The Vintons and Dr. Whiting did not get away from our place until we left. They intended to leave Aug. 4, but were disappointed because the Russian ship on which they intended to return was run ashore and lost on her return from Vladivostic. No lives were lost and most of the cargo was saved. How glad we were that the Vintons were not on it. They were compelled to stay until we were ready to start, which made it so hard for me. I had a family of 9 for almost 8 weeks. If my garden had not done so well I do not know how I should ever have gotten on. I had 5 plantings of peas and as many of corn and all kinds of other vegetables. When we left the cabbages were fine and also the corn. We will have an abundance of tomatoes. The cook will can them while we are away so they won't be lost. I left him to watch the house and to can the tomatoes and some peaches.

We had a very disagreeable voyage from Gensan to Fusan; we were all sick except Olivette, and got in to Fusan Monday morning. We spent a pleasant day with Dr. and Mrs. Irvine, then took the Higo Maru (boat) for Chemulpo Monday afternoon. The little river steamer had already left for Seoul so none of the many passengers could go up yesterday, as there were so many to go. As we are to be entertained at Dr. Whiting's we decided to stay here at the Japanese hotel until tomorrow, which will give Dr. Whiting a chance to get the beds ready and get a start at house-keeping.

This is a very large building with large rooms and high ceilings, but it is not as clean as it might be. We have foreign beds (such as they are)...I would prefer the floor if it was not so damp, and the many millions which would inhabit our bed before morning. We have a long table in the room so Will made the table his bed. The food is not so bad, so we can get on very well for another day. We leave here this morning at half past six and reach Seoul about 2 or 3 in the afternoon. I pity the people who went up today. It was pouring rain this morning when they were to leave and it's still pouring. They were stopping at another place, so do not know if they went or not. I find it very hard to travel with children. We can out up with most anything but the children cannot. However, thus far they have been so well. After we get to Seoul we can get on much better.

The Annual Meeting was to begin Aug. 31, but since Mr. Speer, the secretary who is visiting all the stations in the Presbyterian Missions in the East, has gone to PyengYang and is now on his way to Seoul, overland, the meetings may begin next week. This is an important meeting for our Mission; so many difficult questions to settle, and there at present five voting members in America, so we are rejoicing that we have one of the Secretaries at the meetings.

We do not know what they will do with us, whether we are to stay in Gensan to go into the interior, or whether they will send us to PyengYang. We are both willing to go or stay, just as it may seem best. You remember we were appointed to PyengYang when we first came out but because we could go in at once and because we had no comfortable place in Seoul, we just the same as refused to go or to wait until we could go into PyengYang, so they sent us to Gensan, where we wanted to go, and the Lord has punished us for our disobedience. I can't tell you the trials we have had. The 4 or 5 moves have been little things, yet we have gone through trials which we needed to bring some of the selfishness out of us and bring us to our senses. We have gained a great victory through Christ and we praise His Holy Name. Now when the Gales come back we can vacate the Mission house and go into some hut, if necessary, and not feel hurt,- before it would have been pretty hard. In the Spring we must get out of the house and go some place-where we do not know, but trust it will be in the interior where the name of Christ has never been proclaimed.

It is almost astonishing how attached one becomes to these people. It really seemed hard for me to leave the women for this short time, and I will be ever so glad to get back. I brought Amah along; she is quite a help to look after the children. She goes steerage yet is allowed to be with us. I thought it would be well to have her in Seoul where she could keep Wilbur while I take Olivette to the meetings with me. I worked so hard the month before we left, getting clothes ready for the children,- and I felt so bad that the box did not come in time, for it would have saved me extra sewing. Mrs. Vinton gave Olivette two dresses and Wilbur one, and I made up the goods that Miss Frey gave them and also some remnants that Will's sister sent, so I think they will have plenty. I made me a navy-blue gored skirt to wear with shirt-waists and will wear my brown silk when we are invited out, and as it will be warm I can wear my summer dresses, so I can get on very well, I think. I will get the Chinese tailor in Seoul to make me a dress for sommon wear for winter, and also a blue calico dress; and for Olivette a jacket out of Will's old coat, so when we get home my sewing will be done. Wilbur looks so big in kilts and blouses that I almost wish I could still keep him in his little dresses and aprons.

Aug. 19, 1897

I mean that he shall finish up what aprons I have made for him. I think it will be a long time before he wears pants. Just now they came here where I am writing. Olivette says to give Aunt Jennie a kiss and Wilbur says, "I want to give Aunt Jennie a kiss, too." They each of them gave me a great big hug for Aunt Jennie. They know Aunt Jennie and Grandma and Grandpa pretty well. Olivette thinks that all we have and wear comes from Aunt Jennie. How fast they grow! When we come home they will be great big children and you can enjoy their little baby ways, for which I am sorry, for I do enjoy them and they are a lot of comfort to me. I must close for we will be busy today getting provisions for our trip tomorrow and our trunks ready for we go so early in the morning. I find it quite different now when there are 4 to provide for, and we have to look out for the children first and see that they have the proper food. We can put up with hardships but the children cannot. So I think this is my last trip unless I have to go, until we come to America. I do think the children's place is in the home, and I do know its much easier for me.

With love, Your sister Sallie.

Gensan, Korea - October 9, 1897

My dear Jennie,

The ship is expected in so I think I shall spend most of the day in getting some letters ready. There was no letter from home by the last American mail which came a week ago. The Independent is always welcome I am sorry doesn't have time to write an article for it. When he returns from this trip I shall try to persuade him to take the time. As the work grows he is still kept more busy. He expects to return in November from this trip, then he has planned to have the class for helpers, and after New Years he will go to the country again for 6 weeks or 2 months. Then in March he expects to start on a 3 months trip throughout this Province. He is in Ham Heung now, I hear from him every few days. Isn't it fine to have a chance to send mail! The Korean post seems to be perfectly safe. I really do get discouraged trying to write or do anything along the line of study. It is just one interruption after another. Wilbur wants this and Olivette wants that and a Korean comes and wants to know this, that, and the other thing I can do something at night after the children are sleeping, and I know the Koreans won't come anymore, but I can't it to work all night....I wish I could, then I might get something done. I am just like Pa and Grandma used to be, -such a sleepy-head in the morning, ^{evening} I guess you know that. If I try to read I am nodding over the book in less than no time.

Oct. 9, 1897

And in the daytime it is almost impossible for me to get any done. I do manage by real hard striving to get in some time at the language. I am so glad for the aprons and things you sent. I tell you they help me out wonderfully. Wilbur now has enough for winter and so has Olivette. I will have to make Olivette two pair of panties and Wilbur two woolen shirts, and I think that is all.

I want to put my best lick in at the language, and pass the 3rd years examination next year. I received my papers of the examination I took while in Seoul. I think I did very well for me. I got $88\frac{1}{2}$ in the oral and 85 in the written...60 is the passing grade. I had 11 sheets, about this size paper, in the written exam. so you see it was very long. The language course and examinations are getting longer and harder as the older missionaries grow better in the language. So you may know how much stress is laid on getting the language. I will give you two instances: one of the single ladies who had charge of the Girls School failed on the 1st year examination; she had been here one year and a half. So they took her out of the school and gave her nothing else to do but to study the language and do a little evangelistic work. And the doctor in PyengYang has been here over 2 years and has never passed one exam, so they sent him the 1st year's questions (he could not come to Seoul because his wife was expecting confinement) and if he fails the station will close the hospital until he does pass. Pretty rigid, we think. It is almost useless to be on the field and not know the language.

The weather reminds us that winter is not far away. This morning is quite cool, but there has been no frost yet. We seldom ever have any snow here until after New Years. We have all our coal and wood for winter, for which we are glad.

I was just re-reading your account of your visit at Ada. Whata delightful time you had! It did me good to know I was so remembered. How we would enjoy meeting all those friends! I still take the "Herald" so I keep pretty well posted on Ada news...still I never get as good as you gave.....I really don't see how you do get through with so much work in so short a time. It seems to me you do so much more and I get so little done, but children do make a lot of differens in the work. I am sending the children's pictures. I am sorry I could not get a better one of Wilbur but he simply would not hold still, so I took him in my arms in order to get it, and fussed so much with him that mine is not good. I am sending the group picture of the children taken in Seoul. 40 of them were invited to Miss Wambold's for a party, only 26 came with their mothers.-With much love, Sallie

Pyeng Yang, Korea, May 2, '99

My dear Sister,

I had intended to write before this, but if you could see what all we have gone through with in the last month you would not wonder that I have not written. As I wrote you, I began a class for women March 27. I had an average attendance of 16. They did good work and we had a blessed time together. Will came home April 1st, and wanted to pack immediately, but I intended to finish my class. Monday Will began to pack. I kept up the class until Wed. p.m. when we began in earnest and did certainly make things go at a rapid rate. April 17th we left Gensan and reached here Sat. p.m. April 22nd. I wish I could give you a little idea of our farewell from Gensan.

For several Sundays before we left I guess all the women and girls I had ever known while here came to the services. Whenever they would think about our leaving they would cry, not all, of course, but the majority. Well, it was touching the last morning, - Mon. we were up bright and early; our bedding, eatables, and all necessary things for us to live on during the six days travel were made ready. We had 3 chairs; 14 coolies to carry the chairs, - I had 6, Olivette and Wilbur 4, and Song, our nurse, and Gertrude 4. 3 pack-ponies, and 4 servants, including Song. Well, can you get any idea of such a caravan? You will when you see the pictures which I am sending for you to have developed for us. After all the things were out of the house and we were ready, we had all the Christians come in and had a little service. It was touching to see old men weep as if their hearts would break. I suggested that we go around to one after another and bid them good-by, but some of the men said, "No, not now, after awhile we will see you again."

Poor Amah, she wept and boo-hooed. Well, it reminded me of a funeral. We go in the chairs and Will took several snap-shots which I hope will turn out well.

As we were going along I said to Will, "I am sorry I did not get to bid such and such ones good-by. Will said, "We will see them out at the bridge." When we got out about 3 miles there were all the Christian men with a few exceptions. They had a nice lunch prepared and there we sat down and ate together.

And it was in one way a happy feast, and in another way it was sad. After we had eaten we had a prayer-meeting on the bank of the river and again they wept. It was so sad, it reminded us of Paul when he said,

"Will you break my heart?" Three men followed us out about 6 miles and at last we were on the way.

We went 13 mi. and the coolies stopped for the night at 3 o'clock. At first we were out of patience but afterwards we were glad to have the rest, for Tues. was a hard day. At 6:30 a.m. we were on the way and went over two mountain passes that day. I had to walk part of the time and it was wearisome, but when night came and we got a little to eat we all lay down to sleep in a little dirty room, right in the mountains where I suppose the tigers roam around.

On Wed. the roads were splendid, and we did enjoy the ride through cultivated fields. Thursday, scenery was sublime, so picturesque. Will got some views along the way, but smieed some good ones because of the light. We had very good rooms every night and slept comfortably, and had enough to eat. But Gertrude would not take the condensed milk and I had some trouble about her food, but when she was real hungry she did take it. We had a fine lot of coolies and they did their work well. We went from 30 to 35 miles a day. We got to PyengYang on Sat. about 4 o'clock, and got a warm welcome from both foreigners and Koreans.

The foreigners here had cleaned the house, had matting down on 2 rooms, beds up, cook-stoves and also heating stoves ready for fire, with hot water for our baths -which were most desirable. We took our meals at Dr. Wells' until Tuesday noon. We got stores here and then began boarding ourselves.

Our things have not yet come, but we are getting along very well. The hardship of such a move and change, cannot be described. Will says if the Mission makes us take such a move again we will surely give up and go back to America. I don't think we will. We are to be settled here at PyengYang, no doubt, as long as we stay in Korea, unless the Lord otherwise directs.

Our house is now being built. We are building with our own money, but expect to get it back in time. Mr. Lee is the builder. He bought a very large government building, has moved it up on quite a high hill, not far from other houses of the Mission. Mr. Lee says we are going to have the largest and best house of the station. The gate-quarters of the house, which we have bought will make the store-room, kitchen, and washroom. We can have smooth ceilings, (all the other houses have the timbers showing) but we will have inside a foreign finished house, Korean style outside. But the other houses are Korean outside and inside. I will send you our house-plan if Will has time to take it off.

The house is compact and will be convenient, I think We can scarcely realize that we are so soon to be in our own home, with a large yard and all the ground we want for garden and orchard.

We have planted some seeds, but cannot hope to have much of a garden this summer. We had rhubarb out of our garden at Gensan before we left, but we had to leave everything hoping to bring all of our fruit next Spring. We had to leave our good old cow behind; she hadn't her calf yet so was unable to travel. We left our outside man to sell her if he could, and if not to try and bring her along. I do hope he will bring her. We can buy cow's milk here but have to boil it all for fear it is not pure. I think the water will be the hardest to get used to. They have nothing but river-water, and that has to be carried a long distance; we have to boil it and then it is hard to drink. Mr. Lee is doing his best to get a well, but it is difficult to get good water.

We will have a lovely home when it is once fixed up, and the very nicest missionaries to work with. The station here is more like one big family' it does seem good to be with such lovely people.

Mr. Moffett is building his house this summer. He and Dr. Alice Fish are to be married this month. She is a lovely lady and a fine doctor. You have heard of Mr. Moffett, the first missionary to come to Pyeng Yang. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt are so nice; they are now in the country on an evangelistic trip. Mr. and Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Webb (Mrs. Lee's mother) are nice people. Mr. Lee is a natural mechanic and it is fine to have to have such a man in the station.

Mr. Whittemore is a single man and works in the country all the time. Miss Best is a single lady; she, too, itinerates a great deal. Mr. and Mrs. Will Baird are now in America; he has charge of the school when here. Will looks after it now; he began teaching the boys yesterday morning. I can't tell you about the work this time; it is wonderful to behold all the work of the Holy Spirit! I have a Sunday school class of women, and I suppose there are 50 or 60. Next Monday the Bible Class for women begins. They expect me to teach one hour a day.

When I have time I will write again.

Hope you are all well, With love, Sallie.

My dear Jennie,

I only have one moment to write. I think I've written since we came here. Our things have come at last, and such a mess I am sure you never saw. This little house is so small we can't get nearly all the things in, so we are unpacking just what we

Pyeng Yang, Korea - June 2, 1899

My dear Father and Mother,

It has been a long time since I have written to you, and I am sorry, but this moving and being torn up so long has really unfitted me for anything. It seems to me I can't get anything accomplished. We now feel that we can see the end of this dreadful moving, and we are so thankful. I said, "any kind of a hut, just so we don't have to move anymore." It will be 10 times in 7 years when we move into our own house, and we are both tired of it. It so unfits both of us for such a long time, from our work, that not only the time it takes to pack and move, but so long before we can get settled to work again. However, as soon as Will got some of the things unpacked, so we are comfortable, he left for Whang Hae province, his district of country work. He wants to visit all the churches before the Rainy Season sets in. His work over here is quite different from what it was in Ham Hyeung province. While we were at Gensan he had so far to travel, and his work was all seed-sowing, while over here he does not have so far to travel and he can go on his bicycle, and his work is visiting groups of Christians here and there, teaching them and examining candidates for baptism and the catechumen class.

I can send him supplies easily during his stay. He has given up eating Korean food and living like a Korean. I can't say how thankful I am. It was always such an anxiety to me when he was living like a Korean. This is a blessed and wonderful work and it is a great privilege to be here. The missionaries are all so nice. Really, our Mission here seems more like one big family. It is a little Colony. Our houses are all close together and yet we have nice yards and gardens. We all have our own work and yet the work is all one. And everyone is so busy that it really seems like a bee-hive. I haven't yet told you about our house, nor can I with a pen describe it to you. We will take pictures of it and then you can get an idea of a Korean government building. The house was a Korean police station; it was for sale, so Mr. Lee bought it very cheap, had it torn down and moved up the hill outside the city wall. We are all outside the city wall, and a blessing it is. We had the building put up just as it was torn down, and then added to it the gate-quarters for the kitchen and wash-room. We will have it partitioned, a ceiling put in, and we will have the best house in the station. We have a nice cellar and a very good attic, and plenty of good airy rooms. It is so much better than we had expected to get.

But we take it and thank the Lord for it all. The work is going on at a rapid rate, and we hope to move into it by the middle of August. Where we are now is not comfortable. The house is so small, the ceiling so low, and the flies are something dreadful. I think I never had so many flies since we came to Korea. For the past 2 months the weather has been so dry and hot, the Koreans were very much disturbed for fear of a famine. They tell me that in the country the villages the people offered sacrifices to "Han Na Nim" (their idea of God, or a Supreme Being). They seem to have an idea of God, or a Great Spirit, something like the Indians had, probably. They never sacrifice to the Evil Spirit for rain. Poor ignorant people! If they really only knew God, and realized His goodness! Surely God did hear their cry, for He sent a most beautiful rain which has turned this dry, parched ground into smiling fields. Everything seems to be rejoicing. We planted some garden seeds after we got here, but only just a few came up. Yesterday and today I have been busy getting the seeds in, setting out cabbage and tomatoes, so I am so tired I can scarcely sit still long enough to write this letter.

Yesterday at Seoul Mr. Moffett and Miss Dr Fish of our station were married. They were to leave Chemulpo today, so we expect them here tomorrow. They are lovely people and we are all so glad they are married. Mr. Moffett has had about 9 or 10 years of single life in Korea, and surely he will appreciate a home. Dr. Fish is a charming lady, such a good worker and so consecrated. They, too, are building a house this summer. We will live next door to them until our houses are completed. This is a very sickly time; so many Koreans are sick, and so many are dying. The Lees have a very sick baby; he had cholera, now it has gone into fever. (Note - it was Raymond, who died) Mr. Lee went to Seoul to attend the wedding, but will come home tomorrow. Gertrude is not well, but I think it is her teeth. She has gotten 2 since we came, and 4 more are coming, poor child! She has been feeling bad for about 5 weeks. I intend to be just as careful as I can about her food, and do pray and trust I can get her over the summer all right. Wilbur and Olivette are well and it does keep me busy looking after them. Olivette is just wild to play with Korean children, and I do not dare to allow her to be with them. Korean children are like too many of the children at home, - they know entirely too much. Where we are living now we cannot have any private yard, so it is very hard indeed. I often think that if I could only bring the children home until our house is finished, how nice it would be, but that is quite impossible.

We can't come home until our furlough is due, unless on account of sickness. Of course, if we pay our own way I could go and take the children, but I never certainly want to take that long hard trip alone with the children.

The year we came to Korea there were 7 in our Mission, who came that year beside us,- Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. Lee, Miss Arbuckle, and Miss Strong. They have all been to America since they came out. Mr. Lee went home for his wife. The rest all went because of their health. We surely are thankful that we have been kept in such good health all this time. And we trust we won't have to go home all broken down. The time goes rapidly and it won't be long anymore until our time will come, and I am sure we will need the change, and rest, when the time comes,-especially Will. I think I am holding my own better than he is, thus far.

Well, I must close for this time.

Hope you are all well and happy.

I was so sorry to hear of Pa's accident. I trust he has fully recovered long before this time.

It is certainly time that you both leave work entirely alone, for you have done enough long ago. And now since you are soon to go to that beautiful Home which Jesus has gone to prepare for all who love Him and are waiting for His coming, I trust you will live all the time in that Blessed Hope, and be waiting and watching all the time. May the dear Lord keep you both, and if it is His will I pray that you both may be kept in health and strength until we come home, if Jesus tarries that long. If not then, we will all be happy in the presence of our blessed Lord.

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee; because he trusteth in Thee"

Good-by for this time. We all send our love,

Your daughter,

Sallie.

P.S. Our house was formerly the Pyeng Yang police station. The tiles for the roof are to be taken from an old Buddhist temple, and the gate-house in front will make the kitchen, store-room and laundry room. I think Mr. Lee gave about $150. gold for the house, and $20 gold for the Buddhist temple. We are all well pleased with the prospect; we will have such a large yard, and good house because the timbers are so well seasoned. And it will not cost so much either. We hope to get into it by August if we can.

We are happy in our work over here and have lovely congenial people to work with. Will teaches in the Boys school and is now teaching in the Summer Bible Training class for Helpers. My work is all in the city. I have charge of the Sunday school. We have divided the school into classes. Miss Best teaches the women who can't read; the Bible woman helps her, as she hasn't the language very well yet. One of the Christian women teaches the girls. After the classes come back together then I have a review of the lesson. After the school is dismissed I meet all the catechumen women for prayer and a lesson. I am having them commit verses just now and they are doing splendidly.

We often hear from Gensan and my heart goes back to those dear people over there. Mr. and Mrs. Foote are to live in Gensan. Dr. and Mrs. Grierson and Mr. McRea are to go to Ham Hyung. Mr. Gale will go to Seoul in September. The Methodist Mission has sent Rev. and Mrs. Brooks to Gensan. In the Methodist Mission here there are Mr. and Mrs. Noble, and they are noble people, too, Dr. and Mrs. Folwell, and Mrs. Dr. Hall, -all such nice people. In our Mission there are Mr. and Mrs. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Moffett, Dr. and Mrs. Wells, Miss Best, and Mrs Webb (Mrs. Lee's mother) and ourselves. Mr. and Mrs. Bunker are now living here; he is secretary and agent for the Oriental Mining Co, and he is ordained.

Tuesday - Well, I have been busy today repacking boxes and putting mothballs among the clothes; also finished rgw Smith order. I am always so glad when it is off my hands. I sent for some trimmings for a Christmas tree. I believe I will have a little one for the children. It will make them so happy.

I do wonder if you are having such hot weather. I do feel the heat so much. I go in a loose dress most of the time and try to be as comfortable as possible. I am sending to Buttricks for some patterns I have some black serge which will make me a nice traveling dress, so I will send for a pattern and make it myself, -also some for the children. I am also getting a few books for the children for Christmas, and will give them books instead of dolls and toys. When they send the bills, please pay it (from my account).

Hope you are all well.
 With much love to all,
 Sallie.

My dear Jennie,

It really seems like ages since I have heard from home and probably you think the same about me. I am sorry that I have so neglected to write, but indeed my hands are full and I take very little time for anything outside of my regular work.

How long, long we have waited to hear whether the films we sent home ever did amount to anything, or not. Someone said, "Never send to any relatives to have anything done." We have lost all our interest in our Kodak because we do not know whether the pictures we took were any good. However, we are going to take a fresh supply and bring them along with us. Dr. Folwell is an amateur photographer and he does real well; he has put me in the notion of learning to develop my pictures myself. I want to get the outfit and learn while we are in America.

We realize every day that the time for our going is drawing near and we have a lot to do before that time. Will wrote today to have our passage engaged for the 2nd of July, to start from Nagasaki by the "Empress of India". We get tickets direct to Chicago. So if God is willing we will leave here about the middle of June and reach home by the last of July. We are looking forward with dread to such a long trip and yet we look forward to the sea voyage with a great deal of pleasure, knowing that it will do us all a lot of good. I feel glad that we are so soon to have a rest and change for I fear we could scarcely get through this summer. We are not sick. The children seem perfectly well, but Will is almost nervously broken and I guess I am not far behind.

Will has just returned from a 3 weeks trip to his work in the Anak district. From what he says he was seeing Koreans from morning until night, and most of the night. Consequently he came home almost worn out. The work is very encouraging since he has more help and it can all be looked after. Our cook, Kiphunie, has turned out to be the best teacher and preacher (Ee Kiphun) down there. He does Will's cooking but we do not have him come to Pyeng Yang anymore. While Will is up here Kiphunie is faithfully at work, among the different groups or out where the Seed has not yet been sown. I have a woman whom I am trying to train in as cook. I trust I can make something out of her but it does take patience, patience.

These days I am trying to get some clothes made for the children, but it does go slow.

I am now wondering when the dye is coming, hoping it will be along pretty soon, for when I get Olivette's and Gertrude's aprons done I will be ready to color and get at Wilbur's clothes. I am making over old clothes and making up what goods I have on hand. I will have plenty to get home with. I have my shirt waists all done and a dress for Olivette made out of the dark blue traveling dress I wore when we came to Korea. One little dress for Gertrude, and the Korean women are getting some Korean clothes made which we will bring home. Olivette says that she will sing Korean for you just for fun. She is delighted that she is to have some real Korean clothes. About half the time she has her head tied up in a white cloth and has on one of my aprons for a skirt and a white waist like the Koreans, and goes around the house making-believe she is a "saxie" (a young Korean girl). In their play she and Wilbur always talk Korean to each other. Gertrude is truly a Korean; she does all of her talking in Korean. She is as happy as the day is long and as busy.

Well, I often wonder what I will do when we get home. Pa and Ma are old and not used to noisy children I fear I will not be able to stay with them long at a time, for they never can endure the noise of 3 busy children, and I am sure they will annoy you dreadfully. Will and I have talked it over but we have not come to any conclusion what we will do after we get home. After we have made a visit with you all I expect we will do as other missionaries do, -rent a furnished house a keep house for a time. Mr. and Mrs. Pieters of Nagasaki, Japan leave next week for their furlough in America. Their people live in Michigan. We were in hopes that we could^d at the same time they did, but our Mission would not let us off that early. No doubt it is better as it is. We will get our orchard moved and get our place all fixed up here before we go. Will is having the terraces sodded; native trees set out, and getting ready to set out all the fruit trees we can bring from Gensan. These beautiful days are reminders that Spring is very near. Only one more month and the Sping Class for women will begin. Will and I both expect to teach in it. I would be glad to have some of the other ladies take my place, but no one seems able to do it. Mrs. Moffett has been sick all winter and Mrs. Wells is not at all well, so we cannot hope to have them take much part.

The work is very encouraging all along the line. All the missionaries and Miss Best are in the country most of the time. Miss Best is doing a grand work; she goes out and holds classes for a week at a time, here and there among the different groups.'

My sheet is full so I must close for this time. I trust you are all keeping well. I am so anxious to hear from Pa and Ma. Oh! I trust they will keep well until we come home.

Sallie.

Pyeng Yang, Korea - April 20, 1900

My dear Sister,

This morning I have laid aside my work for a few moments to get a few long-neglected letters written I cannot tell how full every moment is occupied these days. The Bible Class for the women from the country churches has just closed; the attendance was good, and it was a very successful Class. I am getting on nicely with my sewing and can now see my way through to get done, so I can get the house cleaned and all the things nicely put away. I will be able to keep up all my work until the last if I keep as well as I am now.

Will leaves Monday or Tuesday for Anak, his final trip before we leave. He will visit every group of Christians, and plan the work for all the Helpers. I am sure it is not going to be easy for us to leave these people. I have become greatly attached to the Sabbath School women and girls (at the South Gate church

Our church here was called upon to mourn ~~to~~ the loss of another of the best workers in the church, Mr. Moffett's Helper, Mr. Yi, who was sick only a few days and passed away. His wife with her 4 little children are wonderfully reconciled. It was touching to see how quiet and calm the Christians are. They rather rejoiced that another of their number had gone to be with Jesus, yet they feel his loss so keenly.

We received sad news from Seoul the other day, saying Mr. Gifford died suddenly, alone in the country. We haven't the particulars yet. Mr. Moffett^s appointed his administrator, so he has gone to Seoul. Mr. Gifford's mother came to Korea last Autumn, so she is with Mrs. Gifford who is broken-down in health.

I wonder if you get any of the Ada news. I have received a card announcing the marriage of Sadie Lehr to Rev. Kennedy. We met Mr. Kennedy when he went to China under the Presbyterian Board in 1894. He returned and is now in the Christian Catholic Church, Chicago.

They will go to China as missionaries in the Autumn. I read Will's first report of your trip; hope you had a pleasant time. These beautiful days the children are enjoying the out-side all day and I feel I would enjoy it, too, if I could get out. We have a fine bed of strawberries and asparagus planted. We have our yard
